Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Aidan O'Brien has won the Chesham Stakes 7 times and in AIX LA CHAPELLE, who made a winning debut at the Curragh (1400m) recently, he looks to have another strong contender. Second-string that day to his odds-on stablemate, AIX LA CHAPELLE showed inexperience for the first half of the race but knuckled down in impressive fashion when shaken up, hitting the line strongly with a bit in hand.

Stablemate SOUTH DAKOTA could well outrun his odds. He had a wide draw when apprentice-ridden on his debut at the Curragh (1200m), so was never able to get close enough to the leaders. Nevertheless, it was noticeable how well he was striding out at the end, finishing fourth behind a short-priced stablemate in what looked a hot maiden as both the second and third have won since.

It is significant that George Scott runs a filly against the colts, but he has a high opinion of SEA VENTURE, who was an impressive winner of a maiden (1200m) against her own sex on her debut at Haydock last month. Slowly away, SEA VENTURE had to race tight to the rails, but she had the speed to seize an escape route on the wide outside before quickening up to win by 3 lengths. The ground would be the worry as it was good to soft at Haydock, but if she can cope with these faster conditions, she would have a definite chance over this longer trip.

TIME FOR THE MOON, showed how much he had learnt from his Haydock debut (1393m) when winning a 1414m novice in a fast time at Musselburgh. The form of that race got a boost when the placed horses both made the frame in the Woodcote Stakes at Epsom's Derby meeting, and William Buick has been snapped up for the ride.

Not only is the much sought-after JUSTIFY the sire of AIX LA CHAPELLE, but he is also responsible for Joseph O'Brien's newcomer ON JUST TERMS. He comes from the same family as 4-time G1 winner ALPHA CENTAURI, and with his stable in great form, he is one to keep on your side.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

A field of progressive 3YOs, many making their first starts in handicap company, makes the King George V Stakes (2392m) not an easy puzzle to solve. CANNES from the Joseph O'Brien yard is definitely a horse of interest after showing plenty of ability in 3 starts to date. He chased home stablemate and subsequent Derby third-place finisher JAMES J BRADDOCK on debut at the Curragh (1600m) on heavy ground on debut in last November. Returning this season with a good second over 2000m at Leopardstown, he then broke his maiden at the third attempt when stepped up to 2400m for the first time at the same venue, seemingly relishing the more exacting test of stamina. The third and fourth placed horses from that contest have both won maidens since, giving the form a boost, and CANNES looks a horse to keep onside.

The Owen Burrows-trained HEYZOOM has a similar profile, having had 3 starts, placing in his first-two before winning his maiden on his third go at Newbury (2000m). He hung left under pressure in the closing stages that day, but once straightened out, stayed on well to the line to beat a subsequent winner. On the basis of that, he looks well-treated off a low weight in the handicap and should go well if seeing out this 2392m.

RALPH BECKETT has a fine record in this race, having won it twice in the last five years, and he has 2 interesting contenders in JOULANY and TIERRA DEL TORO. JOULANY has been beaten in each of his 4 starts to date, but some of those efforts represent excellent form. On his third start he was beaten 0.5-length in a Newbury novice race (2000m) by subsequent Derby runner-up MALTESE CROSS and following that he bumped into a promising Andrew Balding-trained runner over 2457m at Chester. That's amongst the best form in the race and it would be no surprise to see further improvement on his handicap debut.

TIERRA DEL TORO hasn't finished out of the frame in 4 starts to date. A winner of a 1400m novice event at Kempton last summer, he caught the eye when staying on into third on his return in the competitive London Gold Cup at Newbury (2000m) last month and should come on for that run.

Godolphin's INTO THE LIGHT can't be discounted either, having narrowly lost out on handicap debut at Sandown (1990m) last time. William Buick rides at his minimum weight and INTO THE LIGHT could be well-handicapped.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The first G2 race on day 2 of Royal Ascot is the Ribblesdale Stakes, run over 2392m and open exclusively to 3YO fillies.

Oaks runner-up LEGACY LINK returns for John and Thady Gosden. Just 13 days after her gallant second in the G1 Oaks at Epsom (2405m), she lines up here seeking to go one better. She was an impressive winner of the Oaks trial, the G3 Musidora Stakes (2051m), prior to her Epsom effort. Hailing from the family of FRANKEL, she is bred to relish this distance. She has improved with every run and should be right in the mix given her strong form.

Francis-Henri Graffard brings GILDED PRIZE over from France. The JUDDMONTE homebred began her season with back-to-back victories, including the G3 Prix Cléopâtre (2100m) at Saint-Cloud, extending her unbeaten record. In that contest, she defeated WARRIORS WHISPER, who also lines up in this race. She then disappointed when stepped up in class for the G2 Prix Saint-Alary (2000m) at ParisLongchamp. However, the fact that connections are bringing her to Ascot is telling, suggesting she remains capable of better.

EARTH SHOT is an interesting contender for William Haggas. She began her season with victory in a maiden fillies' stakes (2000m) at Newmarket. That success came over a longer trip and on much quicker ground than she had previously encountered, suggesting she will benefit from the drying ground. She was then narrowly denied in a Listed contest at Goodwood over 1979m. Her best days are almost certainly still ahead of her, and there remains plenty of scope for improvement from the Wathnan-owned filly.

Joseph O'Brien is represented by JOHANNA WALSH. She was a decisive winner of a fillies' maiden (2000m) on good ground at Leopardstown last month. The quicker surface appeared to bring about a different level of performance, as she dictated throughout and won with authority. She stuck on well, and this step up in trip could bring about further improvement.

COMPOSING is Aidan O'Brien's sole runner. Last season, she won the G3 Silver Flash Stakes (1500m) before landing the G2 Debutante Stakes (1400m) at the Curragh. Her starts this season have not quite been up to scratch, but she looks bred to be a strong stayer who should excel as she steps up in trip. Given Aidan O'Brien's history of improving horses at Ascot, it wouldn't be a surprise to see her make a significant step forward.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Royal Ascot's showpiece race of the meeting is the G1 Gold Cup, where the best stayers battle it out over 3991m.

SCANDINAVIA is an up-and-comer in this division and could be Aidan O'Brien's next staying superstar. He was beaten in last year's G2 Queen's Vase (2831m) but since then has been a revelation. He dominated the G3 Bahrain Trophy (2600m) at Newmarket, earning a tilt at the G1 Goodwood Cup (3200m) where he took his form to the top level with a convincing victory. His season finished on a high with an all-heart win in the G1 St Leger Stakes (2905m) at Doncaster, where he downed today's rival RAHIEBB by a neck. SCANDINAVIA began this campaign with a G3 and a Listed victory over 2800m to sharpen up his fitness. While he hasn't run over this marathon distance yet, his profile suggests he should stay well, and if he does, he will be hard to pass.

RAHIEBB ran SCANDINAVIA very close in the Leger and demands respect. Roger Varian's contender progressed well in 2025 despite only winning once on his 1600m debut. He ran in the aforementioned Queen's Vase (2831m) and finished ahead of SCANDINAVIA that day, marking himself out as a stayer to follow. A slightly below par effort at Goodwood (2398m) was followed by an excellent second to SCANDINAVIA at Doncaster, where he really appreciated the extended 2905m trip. He looked every inch a Cup horse when winning the G2 Yorkshire Cup (2771m) on his reappearance, and he will push SCANDINAVIA all the way.

TRAWLERMAN is the defending champion and arrives here looking to make it 5 wins from his last 4 runs. John and Thady Gosden's 8YO was a dominant 7-length winner 12 months ago, routing the field from the front. He then downed stablemate and old rival SWEET WILLIAM in the G2 Lonsdale Cup (3251m) at York and finished 2025 in front of him again in the G1 British Champions Long Distance Cup (3190m) at Ascot. Injury and the development of a rare eye condition, which requires him to wear sunglass-like goggles when in the sun, has prevented him from running so far this term, but if fit, he sets the standard.

SWEET WILLIAM is an admirable stayer and runs well at Ascot, never having finished out of the first four in 8 starts. John and Thady Gosden's other runner did win his G3 trial (3190m) at Ascot in solid fashion but might have to settle for the places.

CABALLO DE MAR is another up-and-coming stayer but would prefer softer ground to be at his best.

Pace: GOOD

TRAWLERMAN led all the way in the same race last year and he can repeat the tactics. SCANDINAVIA also likes to lead and he can get outside the leader. RAHIEBB should find cover in midfield. AL RIFFA is likely to be at rear.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Few trainers headed into Royal Ascot in better form than Roger Varian and his WECHAAD looks an ideal type of horse for the 1600m Britannia Stakes. He was an impressive winner of a 1405m Doncaster handicap last September, before finishing third in the G3 Horris Hill Stakes (1400m) at Newbury the following month. There was a lot to like about the way he finished his race when fourth in a big-field Goodwood handicap (1400m) from a tricky wide draw on his first start of the season. He shapes like he is going to love today's longer distance and that view is backed up by his pedigree.

WE'RE GOOSERS couldn't have won much easier when running away with a 1400m Newmarket handicap by nearly 10 lengths last month. It wasn't the most competitive of contests, but he left a lasting impression with the manner of victory. He went for home too soon on his first start of the season when he faded in the closing stages over 1600m at Newmarket. It was the overly-aggressive ride that was his downfall – rather than the distance – so his stamina for this trip shouldn't be an issue.

ORGANISE breezed home by 7 lengths on his debut over 1413m last November and he kicked off this season with another win when stepped up to 1603m at Yarmouth. Although he lost his unbeaten record when finishing runner-up in Sandown's 1600m Esher Cup on his handicap debut, it was still an excellent effort. He pulled harder than ideal when he saw a bit too much daylight in the early stages. Those exertions told in the final 200m when he was passed by the patiently ridden LAUREATE CROWN.

OUTBACK HEAT enjoyed the solid pace when swooping late to win over today's course and distance last month. His trainer, Harry Eustace, had landed that race with DOCKLANDS three years ago and he went on to win this prize on his next start. It's no surprise he is following the same path, and he should be suited by the demands of this straight 1600m handicap.

EXCLUSIVE CODE makes his handicap debut. He looks to have been saved for this race after landing a hot 1600m Newbury maiden in April. The form of that race could not have worked out much better, with the next 4 horses home winning since.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G3 Hampton Court Stakes is a 1993m contest for 3YOs.

Aidan O'Brien won the race last year and looks to have the leading contender again in ENDORSEMENT. He has run with enormous credit when making the running in a pair of Derby trials this summer. A winner over 1800m, he very nearly made all from subsequent Derby winner CHRISTMAS DAY in the G3 Ballysax Stakes (2000m) before another brave effort from the front when beaten 0.5-length by JAMES J BRADDOCK and PIERRE BONNARD in the G3 Leopardstown Derby Trial Stakes (2000m). Dropped in class for the Listed King George V Cup (2400m), he led all the way when running out a comfortable winner. With Ryan Moore onboard, if he can get the fractions right in front, he'll be hard to pass.

His stablemate ITALY is the main danger. The son of WOOTTON BASSETT had been campaigned over an unsuitable 1400m throughout his 2YO career, but still ran with credit in several high-class contests, including the G2 Superlative Stakes and the G1 National Stakes. He proved that distance was far shorter than what he wanted, when stepped up to 2000m in the G3 Ballysax Stakes and seen running on from the rear to finish fourth. That form has been franked, with CHRISTMAS DAY subsequently winning the Epsom Derby. For all he was behind ENDORSEMENT there, he's unexposed at this trip and cannot be written off.

Dropping in trip, MAHO BAY could hit the frame. A winner at 2000m already, he delivered an impressive victory at Newmarket in April beating a select, but strong field. A step up to 2321m followed in the Lingfield Derby Trial Stakes, which looked to stretch the reserves of his stamina before he was looked after in the closing stages by William Buick. Back to this more suitable 1993m, he could go close.

MORSHDI was last seen finishing fifth in the G2 Dante Stakes (2051m). He was slightly disappointing that day, when not settling throughout and will have to race more efficiently if he's to trouble the judge here. With that said, he stayed on strongly to win the Feilden Stakes over 1800m prior to that, so a resurgence isn't out of the question.

OXAGON ran better than the result suggested in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club (2100m). He travelled keenly that day, with the race not run to suit, but he still has something to prove at present. He has the right man training him in John Gosden to step forward for that, however, so an improved performance isn't out of the realms of possibility.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

BLUE BROTHER could count himself a slightly unlucky loser at last year's meeting, but compensation could await in the Buckingham Palace Stakes (1400m). The son of INTELLO was strongly fancied to land last year's Royal Hunt Cup (1600m), however a stumble out of the stalls put him on the backfoot from an early stage before he was denied a clear run at a crucial stage which cost him all chances of victory. He has not been seen since that defeat, but he has subsequently been gelded and switched to Hamad Al Jehani, along with being eased in the weights. Those are all positive factors, as is the booking of the owner's number one jockey, James Doyle, which suggests a big run is anticipated.

RIVER KING took the drop down to 1600m in his stride when running out a convincing winner at Newbury last time out. He has subsequently been given a small rise in the weights for that win, but given the style in which he won, that shouldn't prevent him from putting up another big run. Connections feel that he has the speed to cope with a drop back to 1400m and with his stamina assured, he could well be staying on better than others at the finish.

ROYAL VELVET has been in fine form this season after backing up her 1400m handicap success at Newmarket with victory in the G3 Chartwell Fillies' Stakes (1400m) at Lingfield. This will demand more from her again, but she is hard to rule out in her current vein of form under William Buick, who has won 4 times on her.

COSI BELLO might lack the experience of his rivals for a test like this, however he has a progressive profile to suggest he should make his presence felt. Although he was beaten in a 1600m handicap at Ascot on his final start last year he seems to be more effective at 1400m as demonstrated by his comeback win at Haydock. He has only been nudged up slightly in the weights for that victory which could prove lenient.

GREAT ACCLAIM finished behind COSI BELLO when the two met at Haydock, but he has since finished a close up second at Ascot in the Victoria Cup (1400m). The first-time visor that was applied on that occasion has been retained, and if having the desired effect again, he can be expected to be in the shake-up.

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Ascot is a large right-handed galloping triangular shaped track, just over 2800m in circumference, with a home straight run of 500m on the round course. There is a straight 1600m course, which stages races over that trip and all races below 1594m. On the straight course, low barriers are drawn on the far side. There are two starting points over a similar distance for races run over 1600m (straight course) and 1594m (round course).

The track was redeveloped in 2005 and the straight drains quicker than the rest of the course, meaning ground descriptions can vary. Being a large track with an uphill finish dragging almost the entire straight (including the length of the straight course), Ascot suits hold-up horses, and front-runners need to be ridden conservatively to ensure they save energy, although on-pace runners do tend to perform strongly over the 1000m.

The straight course sees a chute on the right-hand bottom side of the track that then joins the Ascot main straight. In smaller fields, they tend to come down the middle, but in larger fields, they can split into two and even three groups. With the straight course dragging uphill nearly all the way, the further they go the more it suits horses ridden patiently, and those ridden with restraint normally do well, although over the 1000m those ridden prominently have a decent record.

Over the 1594m they start from a chute at the top of the course on the right-hand side. They then run in a straight line with a steady rise before meeting the home bend and entering the 500m straight, which is uphill to the finish. There is no draw bias, but horses ridden with restraint usually do well.

Over the 1993m they start in back straight and travel downhill for approximately 200m before levelling out at Swindley Bottom and turning into a straight that sees a steady rise to the home turn. They then enter the home straight (500m) and run uphill until the finish. Statistically speaking, barriers are of little consequence, but like most races on the round courses, horses ridden with patience tend to do well.

Over the 2831m they start on the main straight not far from the winning post and have a short run before meeting the first turn. After negotiating that turn, they then pass the 2392m start at the top of the far side straight, before making their way to Swindley Bottom and turning onto another straight, that gently rises. They then run onto the home bend before entering the main straight (500m) and gallop uphill until the finish. Barriers are usually of no consequence over these two trips, especially 2392m where they have a long run to the bend, but it is a stamina testing and although those on the front will be afforded every opportunity in steadily run races, backmarkers are suited in races run at an honest tempo as the uphill rise in the straight will take its toll on those ridden aggressively.

Over the 4330m they start toward the end of the straight course and run for around 339m before passing the 3991m start. Over both trips they have a long run before meeting the first turn. After passing the winning post they head downhill, turning right onto the far side straight, before heading to Swindley bottom and turning onto another straight, that gently rises. They then run onto the home bend before entering the main straight (500m) and gallop uphill until the finish. Barriers are of no consequence, but it is a stamina testing contest and although those on the front will be afforded every opportunity in steadily run races, backmarkers are suited in races run at an honest gallop as the uphill rise in the straight will take its toll on those ridden aggressively.

Fascinating battle for prestigious Gold Cup crown at Royal Ascot

Wednesday, 17/6/2026

Two of racing's most successful stables send out their finest staying horses in the historic G1 Gold Cup (3991m) at Royal Ascot on Thursday (18 June).

Trawlerman, last year's winner, represents father-and-son partnership John and Thady Gosden, while Scandinavia lines up for Aidan O'Brien. Between them, the Gosdens and O'Brien have won the prestigious event 14 times, including eight of the last 10 runnings.

Trawlerman will have to defy his age and lack of a preparation race to repeat last year's triumph as he resumes after Group 1 success at Ascot last October. Since 1901, only the outstanding four-time winner, Yeats, has prevailed as an eight-year-old.

This year, Trawlerman was slow to gain fitness and was at one point considered a doubtful runner. John Gosden explained: "We had planned to run Trawlerman at Sandown, but we're feeling our way back with him. It's a big ask first time out for an eight-year-old, but he seems in good shape."

Trawlerman has been wearing sunglasses in training due to his sensitivity to light, but will not wear them when racing, and his performance is not expected to be affected. He will sport the unique-looking eyewear only in the parade ring and cantering down to the start.

Scandinavia's preparation has been more straightforward. Although not impressive when winning Listed and Group 3 races over 2800m this year, O'Brien is focused on the Gold Cup.

O'Brien said: "We have been getting more serious with him in training and I couldn't be happier with him. We always thought he was a Gold Cup horse, who gets going after two miles. He's a big horse with a big, long stride. He finds everything very easy. He relaxes, he cruises, he's happy to wait and finds plenty."

The big two will not have things their own way. Roger Varian, whose stable is in fine form, is confident Rahiebb will run well. Varian said: "He's in great form, developing into the finished article. His last two races, in the St Leger and Yorkshire Cup, were standout performances. I'm very excited. I think he is a staying horse who can compete at the top level. I hope he will be a flagbearer for the yard."

Rahiebb has not raced beyond 3000m and needs to prove that he can stay the distance. That is not a problem for Caballo De Mar, whose two Group 1 wins were over 3100m and 4000m at ParisLongchamp, nor for Sweet William, who has only once finished out of the first three in his 23-race career.

Fillies and mares have the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes (2392m) to themselves. Juddmonte owns the two expected market leaders in Legacy Link and Gilded Prize. The former clearly has the best form in the race, having followed up success in a Group 3 race by finishing second in the G1 Oaks (2405m) at Epsom. Beautifully bred, Legacy Link has been lightly raced and seems likely to improve further.

In the G3 Hampton Court Stakes (1993m), O'Brien's representative, Italy, arrives with impressive credentials and heads the market.

The G2 Ribblesdale Stakes (2392m) is carded as S3-3 and will be run at 10.40pm (Hong Kong time) on Thursday, 18 June; G1 Gold Cup (3991m) is carded as S3-4 and will be run at 11.15pm (Hong Kong time); G3 Hampton Court Stakes (1993m) is carded as S3-6 and will be run at 12.35am (Hong Kong time) on Friday, 19 June.
