Overseas Expert Column by Patrick Payne

RICH ENUFF is an emerging star dropping back in distance after a super 2nd in the G1 Caulfield Guineas over 1,600m. Just as importantly, he has winning G2 form in good time at this course and distance, a factor that is often crucial down the straight course at Flemington, and he looks the one to beat.

KURO has won his last four starts, including a Listed race last start in Sydney very tidily, to convince his trainer Joseph Pride that he can do himself justice in the biggest test of his career. The straight course will help, as he tends to track the speed then unleash his big finish.

RUBICK was most impressive first up at Caulfield when winning a G2 over 1,000m. He certainly looked terrific in the paddock then and he has reportedly worked very well leading to his biggest test to date. It might not hurt that he has drawn the rails either.

A G1 winner and Golden Slipper runner-up last season, EARTHQUAKE returned to form last start in a G3 at Caulfield despite carrying a welter burden of 130lbs and the horse she beat then has won well since. She seems best suited at 1,200m, has blinkers fitted for the first time and her weight allowance could be decisive at the finish.

SELECTIONS: RICH ENUFF, KURO, RUBICK & EARTHQUAKE

Preview by Shane McNally for Sky Racing, Australia

Exceptional 3yo Rich Enuff is stepping back from the 1600m of the G1 Caulfield Guineas to the straight 1200m here but the emphasis is on extra stamina required for the straight track. Kuro is a very talented Denman colt who's won 5 of his 7 starts and looks well placed here after fast performances recently in Sydney. Outstanding G1 Blue Diamond winner Earthquake, who also ran second in the G1 Golden Slipper, has never missed a place in her career and returned to her brilliant best over the Caulfield 1200m last time. Brazen Beau and Rubick are also very talented types who could easily get into the action here.

Overseas Expert Column by Patrick Payne

Expect a big run from SIGNOFF. His last two runs have been strong in similar company when he has placed and judging by his appearance in the paddock he should be ready to peak. Trainer Darren Weir needs him to win this race to gain a run in the Melbourne Cup and he has enlisted the services of Joao Moreira in that pursuit. Blinkers are also applied for a first time.

LORD VAN PERCY was a smart staying handicapper in England earlier this year and readily fit into the Australian pattern in a G2 at Caulfield last time over 2,400m. He will have come on for that effort and, like my top selection, needs to win this race to guarantee a start in Melbourne Cup and that has been his long-term goal.

LET'S MAKE ADEAL is a somewhat under-rated stayer who warrants respect having come from that same strong form race in the G2 Herbert Power Stakes over 2,400m at Caulfield when she finished strongly from a long way off the pace into 3rd. Trainer Nigel Blackiston is an excellent conditioner of staying horses, her improvement is anticipated and her recent trackwork has been very good.

CARAVAN ROLLS ON won the Geelong Cup last start and is another trying to sneak into the Melbourne Cup with a win here. The former British stayer finally looked as if he had acclimatized to the Australian way of racing last start and he placed in his only other start here last year when he was not in the same form as now.

SELECTIONS: SIGNOFF, LORD VAN PERCY, LET'S MAKE ADEAL & CARAVAN ROLLS ON

Preview by Shane McNally for Sky Racing, Australia

The last chance for Melbourne Cup entry and this race, that's had many names over the years after starting out as the Hotham Handicap, has attracted a typically wide open field. Lord Van Percy worked to the line very well for fifth to Big Memory in the G2 Herbert Power and the winner of that race will be the measuring stick here. Caravan Rolls On was impressive in the G3 Geelong Cup, while Herbert Power runner up Signoff, which has since run second in a Coongy handicap, is entitled to consideration but not so sure about firm favouritism.

Selections:

- 3 Lord Van Percy
- 1 Big Memory

Overseas Expert Column by Patrick Payne

HE'S YOUR MAN is a lightly raced, fast improving winner of the G1 Epsom Handicap over 1,600m in Sydney, which is always a very strong form race. Joao Moreira was on board for that last gasp success on that occasion and a stepping back up in distance to 2,000m and he looks the fresh horse on the scene.

CRITERION seems better geared to this more spacious, galloping circuit rather than the tight contours of Moonee Valley where he was also checked early in the Cox Plate last Saturday. Still, he run in the race was full of merit and prior to that he ran a super 2nd to FAWKNER, probably Australia's best horse this spring. It's very solid form.

HAPPY TRAILS does best at this track having already two G1 wins here but he has so often been luckless at other venues, such as last weekend in the Cox Plate when he missed the start. His performance to finish less than one length from the winner was terrific and this is a chance for Damien Oliver to make up for what might have been.

Star New Zealand mare RISING ROMANCE performed superbly when touched off in the last strides into 2nd by Japanese star ADMIRE RAKTI in the Caulfield Cup. She has the ability to settle forward of midfield and finish off strongly once again.

SELECTIONS: HE'S YOUR MAN, CRITERION, HAPPY TRAILS & RISING ROMANCE

Preview by Shane McNally for Sky Racing, Australia

Once known as the Practice Stakes for its role in getting horses ready for the Melbourne Cup, the Mackinnon generally attracts a top WFA field these days. This renewal is much stronger than last year, when Side Glance was gifted the race by a group of handicappers but the world-traveller has been scratched this year, taking away some of its gloss. If Foreteller hasn't taken any harm from his unlucky, interrupted run in the G1 Cox Plate, he looks an each-way special here. Went into the great race at ridiculous odds and probably should have run a place instead of finishing a close-up fifth. Criterion was heavily backed in the Cox Plate but was disappointing. He's better than that and has the class to win. Brambles has made a remarkable comeback from career-threatening injury and turned in a blinder in the G1 Caulfield Cup. Huge chance is this race, which suits. Happy Trails is always a chance in these races. He's Your Man has improved out of sight this year, from running poorly in races like the Mornington Cup to winning the G1 Epsom last time. This is a further step up in class and represents no value at barely each-way odds. Teofilo 5yo Amralah brings good UK form to this race but it's nowhere near G1 level and might be a risk in this quality event.

Overseas Expert Column by Patrick Payne

HAMPTON COURT looks the likeliest winner having defeated a top class field last start over 2,000m in Sydney when he came from well back on the turn with a very strong finish that made one believe that he will stay this arduous 2,500m distance at Flemington.

If PREFERMENT is to win he will be the first maiden to lift the Derby since 1992. He is a terrific looking colt and tuned up for this with an excellent 2nd in the Listed race Geelong Classic over 2,200m where he stormed home to just fail. He has been a little immature on the track but gives the impression that he is improving in leaps and bounds.

Last Saturday's G2 Moonee Valley Vase over 2,040m is often a race that throws up a Derby candidate and I was content with the performance by the runner-up there, ATMOSPHERE. He looks like a genuine stayer and he didn't have the easiest run into the race last weekend.

A long shot to consider could be BONDEIGER who also ran in the Moonee Valley Vase last weekend but got too far out of his ground under James Winks. If he can be positioned a little closer it could stand him in good stead as I feel will genuinely see out the distance.

SELECTIONS: HAMPTON COURT, PREFERMENT, ATMOSPHERE & BONDEIGER

DOUBLE TRIO SELECTIONS (16 unit bets):

S1-4: Multiple – HAMPTON COURT, PREFERMENT, ATMOSPHERE & BONDEIGER

S1-5: Multiple – MAY'S DREAM, CATKINS, SWEET IDEA & NEENA ROCK

Preview by Shane McNally for Sky Racing, Australia

HAMPTON COURT K McEvoy

Top class colt from the Gai Waterhouse stable who made it 3 wins from 9 career starts with an emphatic performance in the G1 Spring Champion Stakes at Randwick. Gives every impression he will appreciate the step up from 2000m to 2500m and the clear one to beat.

MOONOVERMANHATTAN C Newitt

Very good type who took his game to a new level when a brilliant winner of the G2 Vase on Cox Plate Day. Not certain he'll get the extra trip but stamina is not always needed to win this race, with class usually winning out.

PRENTICE L Nolen

Belmont winner in September but then failed same track before heading east and running a poor race in G2 Vase last Saturday. Looks hopeless here.

FIREHOUSE ROCK N Hall

Caulfield winner 3 starts back and last time ran a good third at huge odds in G3 Caulfield Classic. That's not good enough form for this, rough place at best.

MAGICOOL G Boss

Good win over Atmosphere here, then a little disappointing when fifth in G3 Caulfield Classic. Better than that but place looks his best option.

LOTION M Walker

Black type winner at Morphettville before running a shocker when well supported in the G3 Geelong Classic. Needs to find many lengths to be any chance here.

NOZOMI D Dunn

Graduated from Kyneton maiden win to narrow take out the G3 Geelong Classic at just his seventh start, Some class doubts but not out of this.

LIGHT UP MANHATTAN M Zahra

Well beaten over Flemington 1800m but lifted for solid fourth to Fontein Ruby in G3 Caulfield Classic. Needs to lift further again to have a place chance in this.

BONDEIGER J Winks

War Pass colt who won restricted Caulfield 1600m race before turning in sensational sectionals late when he ran home hard for seventh in the G1 Vase at the Valley. Looks a stayer in the making, one of the genuine upset chances here.

ROYAL STANDING D Lane

Only one win from 9 starts but ran a good race for fourth the Moveovermanhattan in G2 Vase last week. Stratum colt who might struggle with the trip but not hopeless.

ATMOSPHERE J Moreira

Still a maiden after 4 starts but hasn't run a bad race yet. Close up over the Flemington 1800m before running well for second in G2 Vase last week. Son of Savabeel who has plenty of upside and is one of the main players here.

GOULDIAN J McDonald

Very unlucky when fifth over Canterbury 1550m before narrow win over Warwick Farm 1600m. This is a major step up in grade but he shows something and can run a place.

PREFERMENT D Oliver

Very promising Zabeel colt, don't be at all concerned that he's a maiden after 6 starts. Close up in good races at Canterbury and Warwick Farm before slashing second, when he rocketed home, to Nozomi in G3 Geelong Classic. Huge chance.

CUBAN FIGHTER V Duric

Maiden after 7 starts but lot to like about the way he charged home from the back of the field in the G3 Caulfield Classic. Bred to get further, can sneak a place.

SAN PADRE T Berry

Solid runs first 2 starts but was a bit disappointing when he ran home fairly for eighth in G2 Vase last week. Needs to improve on that.

THE MIGHTY JROD D Yendall

Maiden after 7 starts and followed second in Mornington maiden with a solid fourth in G3 Geelong Classic. Needs to show more.

VERREAUX (EM) B Shinn

Another maiden after 5 starts. Beaten out of sight at Flemington before improving for seventh in G3 Geelong Classic. Outclassed.

Overseas Expert Column by Patrick Payne

MAY'S DREAM is a consistent and still improving mare and looks ready for G1 level. Her lead up form has given every indication the progression to 1,600m will be perfect. I also think the big track and the prospect of a high-pressure race will suit perfectly.

CATKINS ran third last start to SWEET IDEA and ran second in this race a year ago. On her day she is one of the best mares in the country so I'm usually prepared to give her the benefit of the doubt and she has drawn in midfield.

SWEET IDEA is possibly the best mare at 1,400m in Australia. She has been in great form and held a number of this field a fortnight ago in a G2 at Caulfield – however, this 1,600m at Flemington is a different proposition and it could just test her stamina even if she has drawn the inside gate. The distance is the main query against her.

NEENA ROCK is a consistent mare and she won a G3 gutsily on her last start in Sydney for this jockey Tye Angland. She has drawn well this time and could make the frame at decent odds.

SELECTIONS: MAY'S DREAM, CATKINS, SWEET IDEA & NEENA ROCK

Preview by Shane McNally for Sky Racing, Australia

Always a great race and often throwing up huge value, this 1600m mares championship is once again wide open. Catkins is a course and distance specialist and has the class to win after running second to top mare Red Tracer last year. Solicit also goes well at Flemington and Bonaria is well placed if she can overcome her horror barrier draw. Star mare Sweet Idea has won 7 from 17 and more than $2 in stakemoney so she is always a chance in this type of race. She's never raced at 1600m but gives every indication she can make the transition from the 1500m of the G2 Tristarc to this trip. Diamond Drill is a G1 Randwick winner who can improve on recent efforts. Politeness, Star Fashion and Nina Rock are all good enough to win but it's a case of going wide if you want to be confident of picking the trifecta.

Overseas Expert Column by Patrick Payne

DEEP FIELD is a really exciting Sydney galloper who has created an enormous impression winning all four starts by big margins and looks impossible to oppose. He also did a nice piece of work at Flemington earlier this week. He is likely to race forward and burn his rivals off.

THAT'S A GOOD IDEA lost nothing in defeat when second to the selection DEEP FIELD last time in Sydney and could be among the closest chasers again if it is to turn into a procession for the likely favourite.

BEL SPRINTER has been an injury-plagued galloper but Hong Kong racing fans would have seen him return to form at Caulfield last start when he dead-heated with MIRACLES OF LIFE for first and when he appeared more relaxed than usual in the parade ring. I would concede that his best form is around turns than down a straight, but he has too much ability to dismiss.

IN CAHOOTS is an underrated sprinter racing in great form and he is never out of the reckoning. He always seems to be competitive in good class races so must be considered for exotics.

SELECTIONS: DEEP FIELD, THAT'S A GOOD IDEA, BEL SPRINTER & IN CAHOOTSQUARTET SELECTIONS (24 unit bets):*Multiple – DEEP FIELD, THAT'S A GOOD IDEA, BEL SPRINTER & IN CAHOOTS*Preview by Shane McNally for Sky Racing, Australia

The rising superstar of Australian sprint racing, Deep Field looks ideally placed down the straight 1200m here at Flemington. The unbeaten Northern Meteor 4yo smashed the Canterbury 1100m track record 2 starts back, then, returns exceptional last 600m figures making a mess of them over the same trip at Randwick. Hard to imagine him being beaten. Class galloper Bel Sprinter finally returned to his best when he dead-heated with Miracles Of Life in G2 Caulfield Sprint and Driefontein is working his way back to form and talented Charlie Boy is racing consistently. That's A Good Idea and Eclair Big Bang could have place chances but it looks like they're all running for second in this.

Moreira partners Atmosphere in Victoria Derby

Friday, 31/10/2014

The popularity of premiership leader Joao Moreira has now extended well beyond Hong Kong with the 'Magic Man' booked for rides in eight of the nine races at Flemington on Saturday - day one of the four day VRC Melbourne Cup carnival.

Moreira has mounts in five of the six simulcast races with his key Group 1 rides being Atmosphere, rated among the main chances in the Victoria Derby despite being a maiden; and He's Your Man, on whom he won the Group 1 Epsom Handicap, who contests the Group 1 Mackinnon Stakes.

However it's his engagement to ride Signoff in the Group 3 Lexus Stakes which has generated the most hype as victory in the 2500 metres race would secure horse and rider a start in Tuesday's iconic A$6 million Emirates Melbourne Cup.

"If Signoff can win the Lexus, I'll be back in Melbourne on Tuesday to ride him and it will be a dream of a lifetime to just be in the race. I've read so much about the Melbourne Cup over the years and it's one race I want to win," Moreira said.

Moreira plans to head back to Hong Kong on Saturday night, ride at Sha Tin on Sunday and then return to Melbourne if all goes to plan.

Signoff's trainer Darren Weir, last season's training premiership winner in Victoria, is delighted to have Moreira aboard. "It's a real bonus having Joao (Moreira) on and the horse will also be having his first start in blinkers which will assist," Weir said.

The Lexus will be keenly contested with 12 of the 13 runners still in contention for the Melbourne Cup but each of them needing to win to be guaranteed a place in Tuesday's 24-horse field.

The barrier draws have been kind to Moreira with only one of his mounts drawing wider than gate seven. That's Brazen Beau who begins from stall 15 in the Group 1 Coolmore Stud Stakes, which is run down the straight course where the wider draws are often a plus.

He's Your Man is drawn ideally in gate five for an interest packed Mackinnon Stakes in which he chases a third straight win. "We've targeted this race since his Epsom win and he's in good order," said trainer Chris Waller.

The Mackinnon field includes Happy Trails, Foreteller and Criterion - who all back up from good performances behind Adelaide in last Saturday's Group 1 Cox Plate - with the fresh blood of Roger Varian's Farraaj who runs in Australia for the first time as does Amralah who's now with local trainer Robert Hickmott.

The five-year-old import, formerly trained by Mick Channon, left the UK after successive wins in July and August - over 2005m at Newbury and 2086m at Haydock. Last start, Amralah beat Hillstar who then won the G1 Canadian International at Woodbine, in Canada, on 19 October.

Add the Group 1 Caulfield Cup runner-up Rising Romance to the mix and the Mackinnon Stakes threatens to overshadow the richest race on the card - the Victoria Derby in which the Gai Waterhouse trained Hampton Court will start a clear cut favourite.

Track Analysis

Flemington Racecourse

As the biggest venue in metropolitan Melbourne, Flemington is mostly acclaimed for its sprawling track width, fair goings and gruelling stretch runs that can easily accommodate fields of 24 starters at maximum. With the track covering 1.27 square miles in acreage and 2,312 metres in circumference, runners still find its wide, sweeping turns manageable to make their moves while turning for home - even from the overland route on the far outside. Also, with a 450-metre homestretch, it is always a huge effort for any front-runners to stay ahead every step of the way - even on a typical race day. In general, this track does slightly favour stalkers and deep closers, particularly with longer distance races.

Except for the 1,600-metre Myer Classic and the 2,500-metre Victoria Derby, where fields will turn shortly after the break, the starting gate for the 2,000-metre Mackinnon Stakes is placed in the thick of a long stretch, thus runners will have all the time they need to slot into a decent position - and not necessarily close to the rail. Meanwhile, the 1,200-metre Coolmore Stud Stakes and the TAB.com.au Stakes field, staging their entire contest on the famous "Straight Six", will cluster accordingly on either side of the course as the race unfolds, depending on their riding instructions. After all, this is a fair trip to both front-runners and deep closers from off the speed, while only the best horse can win the day.

The entire Flemington course will be in play with no portable rails this Saturday, with cloudy skies but no precipitation in the forecast, the track should remain good at Flemington this Saturday. Reviewing the race meeting on 4 October, when the rail was 9 metres out on good turf, Flemington played out just like its good old self, and favoured closers from out wide. The track dynamics will likewise be unchanged on Victoria Derby Day.

Overseas Expert Column by David Duggan

European trained horses have a very good record in this race and are always respected. Horses trained in the USA in the past have struggled but it would appear they have a strong hand this time around.

It could be however that a former European trained horse will spoil the party and that horse is MAIN SEQUENCE. When trained in the UK he showed very smart form including finishing runner up to CAMELOT in the G1 Epsom Derby. His form was patchy afterwards but he has really shone in the USA for Graham Motion, winning three straight G1 events. There is plenty of collateral form on offer here surrounding MAIN SEQUENCE but such is his rate of improvement he must be a major player. The distance will suit fine and whilst his barrier draw 12 could have been better he will likely be hard to beat.

HARDEST CORE is another who should be respected; he started off in modest company but has amassed five wins from six starts. His most impressive performance came in G1 Arlington Million over 2,000m where he defeated MAGICIAN by a length. He can be very head strong in his races but if he settles well he is a major force.

IMAGINING is another USA-trained winner to watch closely. This six-year-old by GIANT'S CAUSEWAY has a little to find with MAIN SEQUENCE but is largely very consistent. The best run he has had was winning G1 Man O' War Stakes at Belmont Park over 2,200m. The suspicion is he may just prefer that distance as opposed to 2,400m.

TELESCOPE is the mount of Ryan Moore and is a very consistent yet frustrating horse at times. Royal Ascot saw the very best of him when he won a G2 there over 2,400m, if he handles this track he has to be respected.

FLINTSHIRE is the sole French runner in the race, he could go close but it is a while now since he won a race and place prospects may be the best hope for him.

Has endured a string of three close calls in East Coast G1 events -- all at the hands of Main Sequence. Sixth in last year's Breeders' Cup Turf but beaten only 2 1/4 lengths for it all. Finished up the track in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic in March.

One of a trio that has battled tooth-and-nail on the East Coast this summer, finishing second and third -- both times behind Main Sequence -- in a pair of G1 Events. Runs out front and is proven at the distance. His turn?

All were G1 events and the margins of victory were a neck, a head and a neck, indicating he does what he needs to do or what jockey Rajiv Maragh judges for him. John Velazquez will be on board this time. Somewhat less effective in England last season at the same level. Will be well backed.

Overseas Expert Column by David Duggan

All eyes on RICH TAPESTRY who really excelled when winning at G1 level here at Santa Anita on his last start. Michael Chang has really done a great job with this versatile horse and if as connections hope he has improved for that start he should be a leading player. RICH TAPESTRY has drawn the ideal barrier in 6 and he should be a leading contender on Sunday, it could well be a historic Hong Kong victory.

There are lots of dangers no more so than SECRET CIRCLE last year's winner of this event. SECRET CIRCLE was behind RICH TAPESTRY on his last start but it should be noted he was re-appearing following a lengthy absence, sure to be fitter today he is a big danger to all concerned with seven wins from eleven starts and a much improved performance is on the cards.

Trainer Bob Baffert also saddles INDIANAPOLIS in this sprint and his chance is very much respected. INDIANAPOLIS is a clean 3/3 over 1,200m including two wins at Santa Anita and has looked very impressive in all his starts. The vibes from California are very good regarding his preparation and whilst he needs to really improve again it is entirely conceivable he will and be a leading player.

PALACE is trained by leading trainer Linda Rice and is a tough G1 winning sprinter. This horse usually comes from off the pace and although he has never raced at Santa Anita, his form gives him every chance today. PALACE was behind another of today's rivals PRIVATE ZONE on his last start at Belmont Park over 1,200m but there should be little between the pair this time around.

Of the others BIG MACHER has very solid form in California and should not be dismissed, he won the G1 Bing Crosby Stakes at Del Mar and a repeat of that run gives him claims.

FAST ANNA has impressed the morning work watchers at Santa Anita posting some smart sectional work this week. This horse was very impressive in two victories at Gulfstream Park in Florida and has been runner up in a G1 over 1,400m two starts back he is interesting.

Three-year-old is undefeated in three starts and was on the Kentucky Derby trail after an easy win in the San Pedro at 1200m at Santa Anita in January. Then went on the shelf, returning with a hard-fought victory on 26 Sept. One to watch out for, perhaps at a price.

Last year's Breeders' Cup Sprint winner has had only two starts this season -- a close second in the G2 Palos Verdes and third behind Rich Tapestry and Goldencents in the G1 Santa Anita Sprint Championship (1200m). Has been burning up the track in the morning so don't ignore.

Threw in a clunker in last year's Breeders' Cup Sprint, finishing 10th as one of the favourites. But he comes into this heat off an impressive victory in the G1 Vosburgh (1200m) at Belmont Park, beating Palace among others. If he moves forward at all in his third start of the year, will be tough to handle.

Hong Kong's hope proved he belongs in the top level with a hard-won victory in the G1 Santa Anita Sprint Championship on 4 Oct -- a prep for this race. He came from off the pace in that race to get up by a nose from last year's Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner, Goldencents. That style could suit in a race with some blazing speed in the field and from gate No. 6, Olivier Doleuze should be able to work out a favourable trip. Why not?

Winner of two straight, albeit against lesser rivals at Mountaineer Park in West Virginia and Remington Park in Oklahoma. He did run well in graded stakes last summer and could have a say in the outcome here with a best-ever effort.

A major player here after winning the G1 A.G. Vanderbilt (1200m) and the G1 Forego (1400m), both at Saratoga, in August. However, he was third behind Private Zone in the G1 Vosburgh in his last outing. Never worse than third in 13 starts at this trip and is impossible to ignore.

This 5-year-old gelding has been a winning machine for Chicago-based Midwest Thoroughbreds with eight wins and two seconds from 10 starts on dirt. He comes off a G3 victory at Keeneland going 1200m on 3 Oct. He certainly will be part of the pace scenario but can he last against the best?

Breeders' Cup Sprint features Hong Kong's Rich Tapestry among the favourites

Tuesday, 28/10/2014

Rich Tapestry, the first Hong Kong-based runner in Breeders' Cup history, will start Saturday's US$1.5 million G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint from near the middle of a deep and talented field -- but also as one of the favourites.

In the US$3 million G1 Breeders' Cup Turf, early favourites are all from overseas with Flintshire a narrow pick after his runner-up finish behind Treve in the Group 1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.

Rich Tapestry earned a spot near the top of the rankings for the 1200m race over the Santa Anita dirt track. Although he has struggled on the Sha Tin turf course at home, the six-year-old gelding had a breakthrough performance this spring on the all-weather track at Meydan in Dubai, winning the Group 3 Mahab Al Shimaal before finishing a close-up second to fellow Hong Kong runner Sterling City in the Group 1 Dubai Golden Shaheen on World Cup night.

After another home-court misfire in the HK Group 2 Sprint Cup to wind up his season, Rich Tapestry was shipped to California last month and promptly scored a Grade 1 win in the Santa Anita Sprint Championship, defeating last year's Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile champ Goldencents and last year's Breeders' Cup Sprint winner, Secret Circle, with a decisive late move.

Saturday's race will be at least as tough a test, with lots of early speed to set up the kind of late run that saw Rich Tapestry to victory last time out -- but also some very talented off-the-pace types who can keep him company late. That group includes Secret Circle and multiple Grade 1 winner Palace. The speedy types include Grade 1 winner Private Zone and some lightly raced three-year-olds gunning for a victory over their elders.

Rich Tapestry has been working well at Santa Anita and is reported happy, healthy and ready to run.

A good barrier draw often makes a critical difference in the Sprint, with the inside being toughest to handle. Olivier Doleuze will pilot Rich Tapestry from gate 6, which should give him plenty of options if the horse breaks alertly. And a pace-stalking trip could weave just the right tapestry for victory if a hot pace battle falls apart late.

The Turf, run at 2400m on ground likely to be firm, features not only the aforementioned Flintshire but also last year's winner, Magician. Magician will seek to make amends for a shocking runner-up finish in the Grade 1 Arlington Million in his last start. The English parade continues with Telescope, last seen finishing behind only Australia and The Grey Gatsby in the Group 1 Juddmonte International at York. Brown Panther, winner of the Group 1 Irish St Leger, is also in this race after he bolted before the start of the Grade 1 Canadian International at Woodbine earlier this month and was withdrawn.

Chicquita represents the Irish Coolmore camp and could play a role on Saturday if she can return to the form that saw her take the Irish Oaks in 2013.

The US contingent for the Turf features Main Sequence, who has won all three of his starts this year in America after labouring for two years in Europe. All three of those wins came in Grade 1 events and his margins of victory were a neck over Twilight Eclipse in the United Nations Stakes, a head over Imagining in the Sword Dancer Invitational, and a neck over Twilight Eclipse with Imagining third last time in the Joe Hirsch Turf Classic. It's no surprise that both Twilight Eclipse and Imagining will be trying to turn the tables in the Breeders' Cup Turf.

The Sprint and the Turf are high points of a two-day, 13-race programme with total purses of US$26 million. The Hong Kong Jockey Club will simulcast the Breeders' Cup Turf at 6.23am, and the Breeders' Cup Sprint at 7.02am on Sunday, 2 November.

Rich Tapestry thriving ahead of Breeders' Cup challenge

Thursday, 30/10/2014

Rich Tapestry is three days out from the climax of his great American adventure, Saturday's G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint (1200m dirt), and Michael Chang's stable star looked a picture of health and happiness as he enjoyed easy exercise at Santa Anita this morning (Wednesday, 29 October).

The Holy Roman Emperor six-year-old emerged onto the track shortly before 8.30am and stood patiently in the warming California sunshine alongside his accompanying pony. After a few minutes, the two horses set out on a slow trot down the backside and around to the end of the home stretch, where work rider Vincent Sit turned back and took Rich Tapestry through a little more than a lap at a steady canter.

"He had easy work this morning and he seemed to enjoy it. He will do more tomorrow – I'll work him a little harder tomorrow and then take things easy on Friday. He's ready," said Chang, as he walked with his horse back to the barn that has been the gelding's home for the past month.

"He's a very relaxed horse, very easy to deal with, which is why he travels so well. Within three days of arriving he looked like an American horse – he does everything here so easily," added the handler.

Rich Tapestry is drawn in Gate six for the dirt contest, which is staged over the same course and distance as his recent victory in the G1 Santa Anita Sprint Championship on 4 October.

Final fast work for on-song Rich Tapestry at Santa Anita

Friday, 31/10/2014

Rich Tapestry had a final pipe-opener at Santa Anita racetrack on Thursday morning (30 October) and Hong Kong's first ever Breeders' Cup contender did his job well as he quickened through the last 400m in 25.3s.

Saturday's G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint (1200m) hope looked a picture and that reflected in his work as he wound it up from the 1200m under regular work rider Vincent Sit, gradually building up speed to close out the final 200m on the bridle in 12.1s.

"He had a good breeze last Saturday so today I just gave him a 400m blow-out, to just open up his wind, and he came back with everything okay. I asked Vincent just to gallop the final 400m in about 13 seconds and 12 seconds for each 200m. He went easily and I'm happy," said trainer Michael Chang.

"He's ready," he added. "He's settled in really well here so I can't see why he would run badly. I think he will run a really good race on Saturday. Now we'll keep him nice and quiet, and in the next 48 hours we pray to the gods to make sure there are no mistakes!"

Rich Tapestry, already a course and distance winner thanks to his win in the G1 Santa Anita Sprint Championship on 4 October – the first victory by a Hong Kong horse in the US – faces a top-class field of 14. Among his rivals are last year's winner Secret Circle, third last start behind Rich Tapestry after a lay-off, as well as recent G1 Vosburgh Stakes hero Private Zone, two-time G1 winner Palace and the speedy Fast Anna.

"It's a big field, so anything can happen in the race," commented Chang. "They will go very hard from the start. The track will be fast and I think Fast Anna is the horse that will break very fast and lead. I'd like to see my horse sit right behind the tempo; similar tactics to last time, with the jockey sitting behind the pace, then try to finish and catch them before the line. I do expect that he has a little bit more improvement from his last run."

Chang, who has been in some demand from the world's media this week, had another busy morning as he fielded journalists' questions and took centre stage at a Breeders' Cup press conference.

"I'm so happy to be the first Hong Kong trainer to bring a horse to the Breeders' Cup," he told the gathered media. "We've done everything we can, he's as good as he was in Dubai and I hope the gods bless us this time."

Rich Tapestry won the G3 Mahab Al Shimaal (1200m - Tapeta) in Dubai early this year before being collared close home to finish second in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen (1200m - Tapeta) at the Dubai World Cup Meeting in March. His historic G1 win at Santa Anita last time was a first for both the Holy Roman Emperor gelding and his trainer.

Track Analysis

Santa Anita Park Racecourse

Located in California, U.S., Santa Anita Park racecourse, with no particular undulations on the course proper, has a dirt "main track" measuring 1,609 metres once around, and the homestretch going 302 metres from the top of it to the finish line. Besides a 1,408-metre infield turf course with a short straight less than 300 metres, there is also a 1,288-metre Hillside Turf Course that lingers along the foothill of the famous Sierra Madre Mountains, cross-over the far turn of the main track, then re-connects the infield oval at the nine-furlong 1,800-metre start.

In the 1,200-metre Breeders' Cup Sprint, the field will race 500 metres before the first and only turn, barrier positions post little effects. However, as a typical racing pattern on the dirt in the U.S., horses that are drawn to the inside will normally be pushed by their riders to maintain their positions, hence the pace would become fierce early on. Even so, back closers do not get an immense advantage.

In the 2,400-metre Breeders' Cup Turf, the starting gate is positioned midway through the Hillside Turf Course. Although the field will race around 700 metres through undulating ground before rejoining the infield turf oval, post positions do not play a major part as the early fractions for routing distance races are always tempered.

With yet another gorgeous fall day in the Los Angeles area, track conditions for the Breeders' Cup day should be fast. Looking back at races that were run in Santa Anita on 25 and 26 October, where dirt and turf going were both listed as firm, front-runners and on-pace starters had a huge advantage as usual, this pattern should stay the same on Breeders' Cup day.
