Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

My favourite is PERIFANIA. The 2YO filly by MAURICE, who won three G1s in Hong Kong, is half-sister to EFFORIA, who tries to achieve back-to-back win of G1 Arima Kinen at Nakayama on 25th December. She has been trained beautifully at Miho Training Centre since the beginning of December, for example, she clocked 11.5 seconds for final 200m at uphill track on 11th December, and 11.2 seconds for final 200m at uphill track on 18th December. While she is still green and behaves babyish, I assess PERIFANIA must have a bright future and believe she is able to make successful racecourse debut on Sunday.

My second favourite is French-bred DATUM, 2YO colt by HARRY ANGEL out of MONTJEU mare. He has been trained at Miho Training Centre for more than one month and I am impressed that he has been improved every week. I am feeling alertness from his recent morning track works and I am sure he has quick turn of foot. He likes to run and concentrates on running. And I believe the 1,600m turf course at Nakayama is a suitable track for him. I believe DATUM has a good chance to win on Sunday.

My third choice is WIN ELENA, who is half-sister to WIN BRIGHT, winner of G1 Hong Kong Cup and G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup. I am sure the well-bred filly by LORD KANALOA has a very bright future. In other words, she must be better when she is 3YO in 2023. As Nakayama was the favourite track for WIN BRIGHT, I believe WIN ELENA should be able to handle the track at Nakayama. And I feel she has a good sense as an athlete.

My fourth choice is RED SCHWERT by RED FALX, who completed a back-to-back win of G1 Sprinters Stakes at Nakayama. The grey colt was breezed twice at Wood Course for 1,000m and clocked quicker than 67.0 seconds on both occasions. Even during those fast work, he is relaxed and enjoys running. He is very straightforward and easy to handle.

My fifth choice is COSTA NOVA, 2YO colt by LORD KANALOA. To be frank, he is still immature physically. On the other hand, he is very keen to run and shows a lot of fighting spirit. I assess COSTA NOVA is able to finish within the first five here.

SELECTIONS: 10. PERIFANIA, 2. DATUM, 6. WIN ELENA, 8. RED SCHWERT & 4. COSTA NOVA
