Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

My favourite is KAZU LAPONIAN. MORYANA, who won 2YO Newcomer at Tokyo on 5th June and Cosmos Sho at Sapporo on 13th August, is half-sister to KAZU LAPONIAN. While KAZU LAPONIAN made a successful racecourse debut at Hakodate on 24th July 2021, the 3YO colt by HENNY HUGHES has not won a race since then. However, he wore sheepskin cheek pieces in the last two starts and his performance were better. He has been trained better than ever in the morning, and I believe KAZU LAPONIAN will run better than ever on Sunday.

My second favourite is FOR ONESELF, who finished second at the class for one time winners on 10th December over the same course and distance as this race. While the 3YO colt by PYRO prefers light sand course, current sand at Nakayama is not so light. However, competition in this races is not so strong and I believe FOR ONESELF is able to finish within the first two here.

My third choice is SEI GEN who is by ESPOIR CITY out of KUROFUNO mare. He won a maiden race at Nakayama on 12th March by seven lengths, which was very impressive. Therefore, his recent two starts seems to be disappointing and I think his condition was not so well in the last two starts. He has been trained much better recently and I think he has regained his top form now.

My fourth choice is DELICIEUX REINE. She is a typical closer who has very strong late kick. She clocked the fastest or second fastest or third fastest in all runners for the final 600m in last six races in a row. The 4YO filly by SINISTER MINISTER finished third in an allowance race for one time winner at Niigata on 16th October, and she should have a good chance to finish within first four if she re-produces this form on Sunday.

My fifth choice is SEYCHELLES NO YUHI. He was gelded after the race on 19th June and his performance has improved since then, finishing within the first four in three starts. He clocked 37.6 seconds for final 600m, which was the fastest in 15 runners in an allowance race for one time winner at Nakayama on 2nd October and clocked 39.2 seconds for final 600m, which was the fastest in 9 runners, in an allowance race for one time winner at Niigata on 22nd October. I reckon he is capable to finish within the first five here.

SELECTIONS: 9. KAZU LAPONIAN, 14. FOR ONESELF, 4. SEI GEN, 16. DELICIEUX REINE & 2. SEYCHELLES NO YUHI

Hasn't won since late 2019 at NAR track 18 starts ago. However, did surprise with two seconds early this year, over Nakayama 2400m and Hanshin 2000m. Tends to lead or run close to pace, so drop in distance a likely plus, but overall speed a concern.

Young gelding started in sprints at NAR tracks with back-to-back wins. Moved to JRA with no success, but has posted 9-2-4 since being given more distance. May have found sweet spot. First time at Nakayama, but may suit. Miho-based a plus.

Started career out slowly, but has been consistently in top finishers since early this year. Returned in late October. after 2-month rest to post 3-5-2, the most recent over Nakayama 1800m. Competitive here.

Excellent results in NAR races at Sonoda (right-handed track) but has failed to make money in 4 starts since in JRA races, all run to left. Return to clockwise track a plus, as is 119lb assigned weight, but lack of speed a bigger problem.

Started out promisingly but slumped from autumn of last year through early summer of 2022. From August improved and posted 4-3-6, but over left-handed Niigata. Broke maiden over Nakayama 1800m. Disadvantaged by chronic late break. Can do better if starts sharper.
