Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

There have been some surprise winners of the 1,200m G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen in recent seasons and once again this renewal has an open look to it.

Last year, SIBELIUS produced a brilliant late finish under Ryan Moore to get up on the line and win by a nose. Moore has been reunited with the Jeremiah O'Dwyer-trained runner in a bid for a repeat of that success, and he arrives in good form having warmed up for this by winning the Listed Pelican Stakes over 1,200m last time.

REMAKE finished over a length behind SIBELIUS in this race last year, but he was shuffled back off the home turn and was given a lot to do that day. He flew home late and would surely have gone close if better positioned at the top of the home stretch. Koichi Shintani's 5YO comes here in better form than last time, having won the G3 Riyadh Dirt Sprint over 1,200m at King Abdulaziz on his most recent start, a contest he could only manage third in 12 months ago. He won that with some authority under rider Yuga Kawada and could be improving.

NAKATOMI finished behind SIBELIUS in the Listed Pelican Stakes last time out. That was his first start in nearly 100 days since finishing behind ELITE POWER and GUNITE in the 1,200m G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint in November, so he is entitled to come on for it. A winner over 1,400m, the Wesley Ward-trained gelding stays this trip well and will be hoping for a strong pace to aim at.

Frankie Dettori is back riding at Meydan and he partners the William Mott-trained BOLD JOURNEY. He could only manage third behind REMAKE in the G3 Riyadh Dirt Sprint last time out, but before that he had twice both over 1,200m been a good winner at Aqueduct towards the end of last year, he should be involved in the finish.

MOUHEEB flies the flag for UAE-based trainer Michael Costa. This 6YO is a two-time course and distance winner, including when returning from a lengthy absence to win the G3 Al Shindagha Sprint over 1,200m in impressive style in January. He disappointed in this race last year, but on the form of his most recent start he could put up a better show this time around.

A winner three times over this course and distance and quickened nicely to land a 1000m Listed event at Jebel Ali last time. Fast but doesn't really appeal as a G1 winner.

Judging from his form in Japan, 1200m on a dirt surface is ideal. His 9.3L sixth in a G3 at King Abdulaziz racecourse last month can be upgraded as he had an uncomfortable trip.

Hasn't historically made a massive impact at this meeting, but stylish from the front when winning a G3 over this course and distance in a quick time in January. Apparently, the deeper dirt surface didn't suit in Saudi Arabia last time.
