Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Horses cannot talk, but how good is their memory? That is my only worry about RUNNING LION in this 1,703m G3 fillies' event after her unhappy experience before last year's Oaks. One of the major fancies for the fillies' Classic, RUNNING LION kicked the back gates of the stalls seconds before the off and was withdrawn. She had gone into that race seeking a five-time but subsequently suffered sunstroke when disappointing in the G1 Prix de Diane over 2,100m at Chantilly. However, RUNNING LION undoubtedly has the best form in this race, and, having won at Lingfield, she won't find these undulations a problem. Two unsuccessful attempts over longer trips last autumn convinced John & Thady Gosden that RUNNING LION was most effective between 1,600m to 2,000m. Furthermore, he was delighted with the filly's comeback second to STAY ALERT in the G2 Dahlia Stakes over 1,800m at Newmarket's Guineas meeting, as his horses have been needing their first run after such a wet spring.

SPARKS FLY made phenomenal improvement from April to October last year, winning eight races over 1,600m and 2,100m. She relishes soft ground, so the more rain the better.

SEA OF THIEVES is an interesting French raider. She suffered in some scrimmaging at Ascot in September, which affected her mentally. Consequently, the filly's owner-breeder sent her to be trained in France, and the switch paid off immediately. She stormed up the outside to win a Listed race at ParisLongchamp in April, and the runner-up has since won in G3 company.

Remarkably, the consistent BREEGE has not won since her racecourse debut at Wetherby two years ago. However, she has rattled off five seconds since, including one in this grade over 1,400m at Goodwood.

ROYAL DRESS won twice for Richard Hannon last season. She was unlucky when a close fourth in a hot handicap at Glorious Goodwood, but was still switched to James Tate's Newmarket yard in the autumn. Swooping from last to first to win her first race for her new connections in Goodwood last month, ROYAL DRESS hit the line strongly over 1,600m, suggesting that this extra distance will be well within her capabilities.

A maiden winner on her career debut last year, and she shaped nicely on her 2024 return when fifth at York, though giving the impression that she needs at least this trip.
