Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This 1,600m handicap for fillies and mares is the newest race of the meeting, being run only for the fourth time and switched to the straight course this year. Punters should tread carefully as so far it has been a profitable one for the bookmakers, with all three of the previous winners having started at double-figure odds.

Godolphin's lightly-raced SUMMER OF LOVE is interesting, and Saeed bin Suroor has a good record at this meeting. She was impressive when defying almost eight months break to win for a second time at Kempton over 1,400m two weeks ago. This longer trip won't be a problem and her opening handicap mark looks reasonable enough for SUMMER OF LOVE's turf debut.

William Haggas is enjoying a great season and he has a strong contender in MYSTIC PEARL. She dug deep when coming from off the pace to win in Listed company over 1,600m at Sandown last July when the going was similarly fast. Things did not work out for MYSTIC PEARL in two runs at Dubai earlier in the year, but she showed more of her old fire when finishing a close third at Ascot over 1,600m, where the slow pace did not play to her strengths.

There won't be a better-bred filly in this race than DOHA, whose sire SEA THE STARS and dam TREVE won three Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe between them. However, DOHA looked to relish the soft ground when she made it third time lucky in her maiden at Windsor over 1,628m. She was beaten on her reappearance at Haydock over 2,038m, but if she copes with these faster conditions, she should be in the mix.

TWIRLING, one of the biggest in the field, has so much physical scope, she had to be content with minor honours on her turf debut at Nottingham last month, but made no mistake and won at Doncaster over 1,600m next time. The tongue-tie has helped.

The fast ground should suit Joseph O'Brien's ADELAISE, who was only beaten 1.25 lengths into fourth place in this race last year. She is a classy mare and showed battling qualities to get up close home in a Listed race at Kempton over 1,600m in April.
