Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Aidan O'Brien and Ryan Moore are the winning most trainer and jockey in this 1,400m Listed Chesham Stakes and their BEDTIME STORY has obvious claims. Her one run to date came when she smartly defeated a better fancied stablemate over 1,455m at Leopardstown. Being by super-sire FRANKEL and out of the G1 Nunthorpe Stakes winner MECCA'S ANGEL, this horse is bred to be special and could be hard to beat.

Another FRANKEL offspring to note here is AGE OF GOLD for Godolphin. Charlie Appleby's colt showed he has plenty of speed himself by winning nicely on debut at Yarmouth over 1,203m. It remains to be seen whether he will stay this 1400m trip, but being by FRANKEL, you'd expect the further he goes the better he'll be, and he's one for the shortlist.

A horse who's almost certain to like this distance is PENTLE BAY. George Boughey's contender overcame a difficult trip on his debut at Leicester to win a 1,200m maiden in taking fashion. This is a big step up in class, but this NEW BAY colt is bred to appreciate the 1,400m trip and could be ready for a big showing.

The Chesham Stakes is not always won by the obvious market leaders, and Charlie Johnston's EXPENSIVE ROSE could be up to springing a small surprise. She started off over 1,200m at Pontefract where she ran with credit to finish second, and then improved on her next start to win over 1,377m at Carlisle. This daughter of AUSTRALIA appreciated the increase in distance that day and could well thrive on the stiff Ascot track.

It's also not unheard of for an unraced horse to win this race and HOT LIKE ME catches the eye. Richard Spencer is well able to train Royal Ascot juvenile winners as he showed with RAJASINGHE in the 2017 Coventry Stakes, and this daughter of GHAIYYATH should be suited to this trip on debut. Hollie Doyle is in the plate and might be about to cause a shock in the opening race on the final day of the Royal Meeting, just like HOLLOWAY BOY did first time up in 2022.

SELECTIONS: 14. BEDTIME STORY, 1. AGE OF GOLD, 11. PENTLE BAY, 15. EXPENSIVE ROSE & 16. HOT LIKE ME

1ST DOUBLE SELECTIONS (4 unit bets):

Out to try and repeat the exploits of the winner of this two years ago, landing this on career debut. Her breeding says she should be effective at this trip.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Classic hero CONTINUOUS looks a class above his rivals in the G2 Hardwicke Stakes. He won the G1 St Leger Stakes at Doncaster over 2,905m last September, having previously shown he has the gears for this shorter 2,371m distance when successful in the G2 Great Voltigeur Stakes at York. His run in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe over 2,400m at ParisLongchamp just over two weeks after his St Leger Stakes victory also confirmed he is very smart. Aidan O'Brien's runner was a bit short of room in the closing stages behind unbeaten French star ACE IMPACT, so he did well to finish so close in Europe's top middle-distance prize. This will be his first start since that run but it is a good starting point to his season.

MIDDLE EARTH was well beaten in the G1 St Leger Stakes over 2,905m at Doncaster but that race was run on unsuitably soft ground. He showed he is much better on a faster surface when bouncing back to land a 2,831m Listed race at Ascot in October. There was a lot to like about the way he swooped from the rear to make a winning return to action in a Newbury G3 over 2,400m last month. He is still improving and he looks the biggest danger to CONTINUOUS.

Top trainer William Haggas has a couple of live chances with former Royal Ascot handicap winners. His CANDLEFORD won the Duke Of Edinburgh Stakes over this distance at this meeting two years ago. He looked better than ever when successful on his first run of the season in a Listed race over 2,400m at the Curragh four weeks ago. The fast ground is ideal for him.

Stablemate DESERT HERO – owned by The King and Queen – showed a superb finishing burst when just getting up to land the King George V Stakes over this course and distance at Royal Ascot last year. He went on to finish third behind CONTINUOUS in the G1 St Leger Stakes over 2,905m at Doncaster on his final run of last year. The race wasn't run to suit when he was disappointing behind MIDDLE EARTH in a 2,400m G3 at Newbury last month.

ISLE OF JURA stepped up from handicaps to land a Goodwood Listed race over 1,979m last month. He has plenty potential tackling this distance for the first time.

This useful US performer has done little wrong on the domestic circuit this season (a dual G3 winner). Ran a fair race when splitting two Godolphin performers in G2 contest last time, and he could sneak into a place.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The last two runnings of this 1,200m G1 sprint have been won by big outsiders and with no superstars in the line-up it looks a very open race again.

SHARTASH was a useful 2YO in 2022, winning the G2 Railway Stakes over 1,200m at the Curragh and being placed at G1 level. He lost his way last season but has been revitalized by being gelded after a switch to Archie Watson's stable, winning his two races this season. The latest of those came in a Listed race over 1,393m at Haydock last month. Ultimately, he only won narrowly after being well in command 200m out but he showed so much speed this drop back to a stiff 1,200m looks in his favour.

THE WIZARD OF EYE has raced over a variety of distances in his career but produced one of his best ever performances on his first run for the Charlie Fellowes stable when flashing home to win the Victoria Cup over 1,400m, traditionally one of the most competitive handicaps of the season, at Ascot last month. The booking of Ryan Moore is eye-catching and there is stable confidence that THE WIZARD OF EYE's proven track ability will make him competitive up in grade and down in distance.

MILL STREAM made positive progress last year and has returned better than ever this season, improving from a seasonal debut second to WASHINGTON HEIGHTS in the G3 Abernant Stakes at Newmarket over 1,200m in April to beat that opponent as well as SHOULDVEBEENARING, ART POWER and SWINGALONG in the G2 Duke of York Stakes at York over 1,200m. The way MILL STREAM dug deep in the final few strides bodes well for this stiffer Ascot track.

With the ground looking like it will be too firm for ART POWER and KINROSS, who is at his best over 1400m, MITBAAHY, who pounced late to land the G2 Greenlands Stakes over 1,200m at the Curragh last month, comes into consideration. That form looks sound after runner-up REGIONAL finished second in the G1 King Charles III Stakes over 1,000m at this meeting on Tuesday. Jockey Jamie Spencer is renowned for riding Ascot's straight course well.

Last year's winner KHADEM, who also finished fourth in 2020, now ridden by Oisin Murphy, cannot be ruled out.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G3 Jersey Stakes looks an interesting race, with the two frontrunners miles ahead in the market.

Aidan O'Brien's RIVER TIBER looks a worthy favourite, having found the frame in his past three runs in G1 company, so a step back down two grades could pay dividends. Most recently he finished an impressive third, 1.5 lengths behind multiple G1 winner ROSALLION, in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas over 1,600m at the Curragh last month, proving he is a horse with serious ability. Dropping back in trip to 1,400m could see him to even better effect in what looks an easier field.

HAATEM was entered in the St James's Palace Stakes earlier this week, but Richard Hannon seems to think this is a better fit for his colt. Similarly to the favourite, this is another G1 contender who's been dropped in grade. He and came home in front of RIVER TIBER in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas over 1,600m last time out but gives him 3lbs here as a result.

EBEN SHADDAD is John & Thady Gosden's sole runner here. His most notable form lines of late have been a second to HAATEM in the G3 Craven Stakes over 1,600m at Newmarket in April and then a seventh in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains over 1,600m last time out, where he was beaten only two lengths. That said, he's failed to pick up a win since his debut in a Class 4 novice over 1,200m and will need to bring his A-game first time around Ascot to be in with a shout.

NEVER SO BRAVE heads up proceedings for veteran trainer Sir Michael Stoute, who last won this race back in 2018. This is a colt who has been mightily impressive so far this season, with two wins from two on varying ground. Should the surface stay firm, his comfortable win in a handicap around Chester over 1,515m could be the right preparation for this contest.

NATIVE AMERICAN is one at a slightly bigger price who could have a chance. Second in the Listed Surrey Stakes over 1,403m by a short-head last month at Epsom, showed his potential over this distance. Richard Fahey has trained winners of this race and with the Wathnan Racing-owned horses in top-form, he could be one to look out for.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Only one favourite in last 10 years has won this 1,200m cavalry charge down the straight course, and nine of the last 10 winners have emerged from towards the top of the handicap.

One that ticks all the right boxes is HARRY THREE, for whom Clive Cox has booked Ryan Moore to ride. HARRY THREE enjoyed a lucrative summer two seasons ago, rattling off three wins in a row over this 1,200m. He captured a fast ground handicap at Newmarket and followed up at York before taking his form up another notch when landing a 1,200m Listed race at Deauville. Not disgraced in sixth place when pitched into the G1 Sprint Cup Stakes over 1,200m at Haydock, HARRY THREE was subsequently gelded. However, after a 631-day absence through injury, he returned at Salisbury over 1,200m last month, finishing an eye-catching fourth in Listed company. He'll love the ground and is well worth close attention.

ALBASHEER, who lost all chance in last year's race with a slow start, is another with classy form. He was runner-up in the G2 Champagne Stakes over 1,400m at Doncaster as a 2YO, and after being gelded he won a competitive 1,200m handicap on fast ground at York. Hollie Doyle knows ALBASHEER well, and the 6YO, impressive when winning twice on the all-weather over 1,000 and 1,200m at Newcastle earlier in the year, looks primed for this race.

DARK TROOPER had a terrific 2023 for Ed Walker, winning six races between 1,200m and 1,400m, including two on fast ground over this course. He looked to be bordering on being a Group horse but was bought for a big sum to be switched to France last autumn. Though disappointing in Qatar earlier in the year, DARK TROOPER, who can go on any ground, recaptured last season's brilliance when bolting up for his new connections at Saint-Cloud over 1,200m last month.

APOLLO ONE, runner-up in this race last year, is a grand sprinter but always seems to find one too good in these big handicaps. He has finished second at Epsom, Goodwood and Newmarket in the last 12 months.

UNEQUAL LOVE is another money-spinner, who has won five races over 1,200m to 1,400m in the last year. She thrived physically through the winter and but for a slow start she might have made the frame in a G2 race at the Curragh over 1,200m last time.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

HAND OF GOD looks set to make a bold bid in his attempt to secure a third win this season in the Golden Gates Stakes over 1,993m at Royal Ascot. After opening his account in a 1,600m maiden on his final start last season, the Harry Charlton-trained 3YO resumed where he left off with a front running victory in a 1,600m handicap at Sandown, which he only received a small rise in the weights for. This will be the first time that the son of CHURCHILL has run over 2,000m, but judging by his last run the step up in distance is likely to bring about further improvement.

APPROVAL was well beaten on his only start at two, however since being gelded after that run he has proven a model of consistency in three starts this year. After finishing second in two 1,729m novice contests on the all-weather at Wolverhampton the William Haggas-trained gelding built on those efforts with an impressive win on his first attempt over 2,000m in a novice event back on turf at Windsor. The way he finished that day suggests the stiff 2,000m here on similar conditions will pose no problems to the son of LE HAVRE in his bid to follow up that success.

The closest Aidan O'Brien has come to winning the race was with SUN KING, who finished third in 2022, but the Ballydoyle trainer looks to have a lively contender in OLD FAITHFUL. Since being stepped up beyond 1,600m the son of SIYOUNI has looked a different character after winning a 2,076m contest at Naas before following up in a 2,036m handicap at Navan. Having appeared to need every bit of the trip last time out this race looks an ideal test for him.

PORTSMOUTH has been in sparkling form this season after winning a 1,703m handicap at Epsom on his return before finishing second in two handicaps over 1,979m and 2,015m. Both of his last two races were run with soft in the going description and a return to quicker conditions could help him see out the 1,993m trip much better.

ARABIC LEGEND is yet to hit the same heights since joining Karl Burke from Andrew Balding, however a drop in grade, and trip, makes him of interest. After finishing fourth in the Listed Blue Riband Trial over 2,015m at Epsom on his stable debut he appeared to fail to see out the 2,321m in the Listed Lingfield Derby Trial Stakes. On that basis dropping back in trip for his handicap debut looks a positive move.

Handicap debut but had made quite a splash in a novices' event at Windsor in May, with a decisive front-running victory. Stamina for this longer trip possible but not certain.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Queen Alexandra Stakes is the final race of Royal Ascot and also the longest, run over a marathon trip of 4,330m.

Aidan O'Brien has a strong contender here in QUEENSTOWN. He has only won a maiden to date, when successful over 2,400m at the Curragh last season, but in three starts this season he has shown smart form. A third on reappearance over an inadequate 2,089m at Naas was followed by two seconds, when chasing home KYPRIOS in the Listed Vintage Crop Stakes and again in the G3 Saval Beg Levmoos Stakes, both over 2,800m. On both occasions he has been seen staying on well at the finish and while this is a significant step up in trip, he looks set to relish it. Considering KYPRIOS is possibly the best stayer, QUEENSTOWN could well be better than this opposition.

It was the Joseph O'Brien yard that took this race 12 months ago, winning with DAWN RISING, who then went on to run well in the G3 Irish St Leger Trial Stakes over 2,800m and the G1 Irish St. Leger. He hasn't returned in the same form this season though and he might struggle to follow up last year's win.

Instead, Joseph O'Brien could have a better chance with UXMAL. This son of GALILEO has been highly consistent in seven career starts to date, winning twice and placing three times. A seven-length maiden win at Tramore last September was followed by a close second in the Listed Prix Scaramouche over 2,800m at Saint-Cloud, and he returned this season with a comfortable success over 2,840m at Killarney. This trip shouldn't prove a problem and with continued improvement he can play a part in the finish.

POSTILEO represents top dual purpose trainer Emmet Mullins. He won four times on the Flat over trips ranging from 2,400m to 2,900m when trained in the UK, and after two runs over hurdles in March, he reverted to the Flat with a good run to finish fourth in the Listed Vintage Crop Stakes over 2,800m behind QUEENSTOWN at Navan. That run should have sharpened him up and he may be able to get closer to that rival now.

GRAND PROVIDENCE has been prepped for this race and, while she has a bit to find with some better rated rivals, she has shown a liking for marathon trips, having won over 3,600m, and should go well on the ground.

SELECTIONS: 13. QUEENSTOWN, 8. UXMAL, 5. POSTILEO, 2. DAWN RISING & 14. GRAND PROVIDENCE

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Ascot Racecourse

Ascot is a large right-handed galloping triangular shaped track, just over 2800m in circumference, with a straight run of 500m on the round course. There is a straight 1600m course, which all races below 1600m are held. There are two start points for races run over 1600m, one on the round course and the other on the straight course.

The track was redeveloped in 2005 and the ground in the straight drains quicker than the rest of the course, meaning ground descriptions can vary. Being a large track with an uphill finish dragging almost the entire straight (including the length of the straight course), Ascot suits hold-up horses, and front-runners need to be ridden conservatively to ensure they save energy.

Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes Day, day 5 of the Royal Ascot meeting see's seven turf races for coverage.

For the three races on round course, the 1993m Golden Gates Stakes, runners start in back straight and travel downhill for approximately 200m before levelling out at Swindley Bottom and turning into a straight that sees a steady rise to the home turn, then enter the 500m home straight and run uphill until the finish. Statistically speaking, barriers are of little consequence, but like most races on the round course, horses ridden with patience tend to do well.

For the 2392m G2 Hardwicke Stakes, it is similar to the 1993m. The only difference is that the runners start from the highest point of the course, which is on the top of the back straight for 2392m, then head downhill for nearly 400m to the Swindley Bottom.

For the 4330m Queen Alexandra Stakes, they start toward the top of the straight course and have a long uphill run before meeting the first turn. After passing the winning post they head downhill, turning right onto the far side straight, before heading onto Swindley bottom and turning onto another straight, that gently rises. Then enter the 500m home straight, and run uphill until the finish. Barriers are of no consequence, but it is a stamina testing contest and although those on the front will be afforded every opportunity in steadily run races, backmarkers are suited in races run at a true tempo as the uphill rise in the straight will take its toll on those ridden aggressively.

For those races on the straight course, the 1400m G3 Jersey Stakes and the Listed Chesham Stakes and, as well as the 1200m G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes and Wokingham Stakes, in smaller fields they tend to come down the middle, but in larger fields they can split into two and even three groups. The straight draw results will vary for 1200m, but it is advisable to look for the speed angle, especially in larger fields, as the winner usually comes from where the pace is, and results are more pace-dependent than draw-dependent. With the straight course being uphill nearly all the way, the further they go the more it suits horses ridden patiently, and those ridden with restraint normally do well.

For the feature race, G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes over 1200m, this particular race can be difficult to predict with six of the last ten running's seeing the field split into two groups, whilst the other four running's saw them come down the straight in one group. Horses can win from anywhere. Of the last ten winners, five have tracked the speed, four have been mid division or held up, and one had led. Looking for the pace angle is always helpful, as if they go too quickly, the uphill drag will see those ridden with restraint come to the fore, but if they don't go a decent pace, those on the front will continue to gallop up the hill.

Last year's Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes was run on Good to Firm ground and saw a field of 16 go to post. On leaving the stalls CANNONBALL lost the rider as the remaining fifteen runners split into two groups. The favourite HIGHFIELD PRINCESS led the group closest to the grandstand, closely followed by ART POWER, EMARAATY ANA and ARTORIUS with those held up including RUN TO FREEDOM and Hong Kong, China runner WELLINGTON. Whilst the far side group was led by THE ASTROLOGIST with COEUR DE PIERRE, BIG INVASION and KINROSS in close attendance and those waited with included SACRED and KHAADEM. At the halfway point there had been no change, but it was the far side group, headed by THE ASTROLOGIST that held the advantage. At the 300m mark, SACRED and KINROSS were produced to lay down a challenge to THE ASTROLOGIST, whilst HIGHFIELD PRINCESS still led the near side group, but it was apparent the winner would come from the other side. SACRED got the better of the argument with both THE ASTROLOGIST and KINROSS went two lengths clear but as is often the way at Ascot, she was beginning to idle up the hill and the rank outsider, KHAADEM, who had been ridden with plenty of patience was closing hard and grabbed SACRED in the shadows of the post to win by a neck with HIGHFIELD PRINCE in third in a time that was 0.12 slower seconds than standard.

The weather forecast suggests light showers in the lead-up and potentially during the meeting. However, there is no heavy rain being forecast and Ascot does drain well. If the forecasts are accurate, then it's likely we will see Good in the going description this year, but it could be Good to Soft if the rain does arrive.

Mill Stream could provide Buick with a big race final-day Royal Ascot victory

Friday, 21/6/2024

Saturday's (22 June) Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes (1200m) is Royal Ascot's major six-furlong sprint for older horses and William Buick's mount Mill Stream could pounce for Group 1 glory on the final day of this spectacular meeting.

Trained in Newmarket by Jane Chapple-Hyam and owned by former trainer Peter Harris, Mill Stream is on an upward curve having posted two excellent efforts since a winter breathing operation. Most recently, in the Duke of York Stakes (1200m) last month, Buick had to wait longer than he wanted before unleashing the colt who then accelerated purposefully to grab the Group 2 prize in the last strides.

Chapple-Hyam recalls that watching that race was first stressful before becoming joyful.

"He (Buick) had to take back twice at York and then get back into a rhythm. The fact that he was able to do that given the strong competition was very encouraging," Chapple-Hyam said.

Reflecting on that race, Buick said: "Mill Stream really put his head down at York and I think Ascot's stiffer track could suit even better. As a four-year-old, he is a big strong and more mature horse and I think that this could be his year."

Washington Heights (Tom Eaves) had led around 450m out that day and, only headed near the end and beaten half a length in fourth, must also have claims for trainer Kevin Ryan who is currently in red-hot form.

Jockey Jamie Spencer has found the straight track at Ascot a playground for his skills of delivering his mounts at the right moment, often from way off the speed. Those tactics worked ideally in this race in 2023 for Spencer – who has already had a straight-track Ascot winner this week – when Khaadem recorded an 80/1 shock win. Khaadem (Oisin Murphy) tries again on Saturday but Spencer switches to his Charlie Hills-trained stablemate Mitbaahy.

Spencer had produced Mitbaahy from last to win May's G2 Greenlands Stakes (1200m) at The Curragh and Hills said: "Mitbaahy won very nicely there with two Group 1 winners behind him. I feel that he is at his best now and he also has a great temperament so I don't think there is any reason why he should not win a Group 1."

Trainer Ralph Beckett has tasted Royal Ascot success this week and fields Kinross, one of the most reliable high-class horses in training. Running in the colours of Hong Kong-based owner Marc Chan, Kinross has run some great races at Ascot, including landing the 2022 G1 British Champion Sprint Stakes over this course and distance.

Kinross finished seventh in this race last year with the suspicion remaining that he prefers slow to fast ground especially over this sprinting trip.

Seven-year-olds like him have won this twice in the last three years but Beckett concedes that the ground could be a problem on this 2024 return: "He still enjoys himself every day and is in great shape, but yes we would like some rain by Saturday."
