Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Prix Daphnis is a G3 event for 3YOs over 1,600m, open to horses who have yet to win a G1 or G2 this year. It's a small field race, with only seven runners, but RAMADAN immediately has to be of interest.

Christopher Head's colt was a winner as a juvenile over this 1,600m trip, before being thought highly enough of to contest a Saint-Cloud G1, where he was a close fourth. This year he's won a Listed and a G3 race, both over 1,600m, before a fine fifth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at ParisLongchamp. He wasn't beaten far next time in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club over 2,100m, but that distance stretched his stamina, and this 1,600m should suit better.

DARLINGHURST found G1 waters too deep last time at Royal Ascot, but although outclassed still gave a respectable account of himself. Prior to that, Jerome Reynier's colt had won a G3 over 1,800m, where he beat subsequent G1 Prix du Jockey Club runner-up FIRST LOOK by a length. Although he has shown an ability to handle further than 1,600m, he has won over the trip, and should be hard to knock out of the frame.

Another horse with G1 form is SUPERCOOLED. Andre Fabre's colt won on his debut over 1,500m as 2YO and found the winning groove again on his second start as a 3YO, when a taking winner of a ParisLongchamp 1,600m event. Fabre clearly had lofty ambitions for him, running him next in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains, and like RAMADAN, he ran with lots of credit to finish sixth. SUPERCOOLED will need to improve on his second in Listed company next time out, but he could do so and go close.

GHORGAN, trained in Germany, is a lightly raced colt who merits close attention. Andreas Wohler's colt raced three times as a juvenile, before stepping up markedly in 2024 to place third twice in the Italian and German 2000 Guineas, both over 1,600m. GHORGAN has obvious ability and enough to think he could run well again.

NO LUNCH is an extremely unexposed contender compared to his rivals. Carlos Laffon-Parias' colt has only raced three times, all over 1,600m, winning once at Saint-Cloud before a commendable third in Listed company next time out. This event represents a notable step up in class, but he's improving with age, so don't be surprised if he figures in the closing stages.

SELECTIONS: 1. RAMADAN, 2. DARLINGHURST, 5. SUPERCOOLED, 4. GHORGAN & 6. NO LUNCH

2ND DOUBLE SELECTIONS (4 unit bets):
S2-2: Multiple – 1. RAMADAN & 2. DARLINGHURST
S2-3: Multiple – 17. CALAS & 10. ATAKAMA

Failed to build on early season promise in two French classics, but the G3 victor clearly warrants a second look now that he has had his sights lowered. Although he will have to defy a 3lb penalty for his G3 win this year.

Looked an exciting prospect after completing a four timer in G3 at Chantilly in May. Couldn't handle the big guns in a hot G1 at Royal Ascot last time but has the potential to bounce back off a 3lb penalty for his G3 win this year.
