Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Lowther Stakes is a G2 event for 2YO fillies over 1,200m and features a host of promising juveniles.

HEAVENS GATE is a CHURCHILL filly who has progressed with racing this season. Aidan O'Brien's charge impressively got off the mark in May over 1,200m before subsequently placing third in G3 and G2 company at Royal Ascot and Newmarket's July Course respectively. She got back to winning ways in a valuable Naas 1,186m event earlier this month, and the way the master of Ballydoyle improves his fillies suggests she's ready for a career best.

LEOVANNI arrived at Royal Ascot with a big reputation as an expensive breeze-up purchase who'd scored nicely on debut over 1,007m at Nottingham. Somehow, she was allowed to go off at a big price, but still powered clear to win the G2 Queen Mary Stakes over 1,000m under James Doyle. Karl Burke's filly's stamina for this 1,200m isn't assured, but she's more than talented enough to make the frame.

A filly slightly more under the radar is CELANDINE. Ed Walker's daughter of KINGMAN is twice a winner over 1,200m, including a Newmarket Listed race, and has had solid form since. Both her third to future G1 fourth ARABIE over 1,200m at Chantilly and her fourth to smart juvenile BIG MOJO at Goodwood over the sharp 1,000m read well, and she can hit the places.

MISS LAMAI also represents LEOVANNI's Royal Ascot form and she should be respected. Karl Burke's filly had no cover that day and did very well to grab fourth as her stablemate winner was away and gone, and she herself has since shown smart form when winning a competitive Listed race at Naas over 1,000m. This 1,200m will test her stamina, but if she gets a good tow into the race, she should go well.

TIME FOR SANDALS is a lightly raced filly compared to her rivals but looks talented based on her two starts. Harry Eustace's daughter of SANDS OF MALI knuckled down to win on debut at Kempton over 1,200m on the polytrack, the second having come out since and won a smart Goodwood maiden in July. Next time in Newbury's Super Sprint over 1,031m, TIME FOR SANDALS belied a difficult draw to finish a fine third and looks capable of running into the places here.

SELECTIONS: 4. HEAVENS GATE, 1. LEOVANNI, 3. CELANDINE, 5. MISS LAMAI & 8. TIME FOR SANDALS

This should be quick without being flat out fast. HEAVENS GATE is a confirmed front-runner and should lead. CELANDINE, MISS LAMAI and TALES OF THE HEART all often race near the pace. UNSPOKEN LOVE also made the running last time she raced in Britain and may be up there. BETTY CLOVER will be a closer from the rear, perhaps with LEOVANNI.

Consistently good in her five-race career so far. It is not easy to lead throughout in a 21-runner field, but that is what she did in a valuable 1186m event at Naas this month. Looks to have a brave attitude.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This is a 1,200m conditions race restricted to horses bought as yearlings from one thoroughbred sale last year.

It tends to be dominated by runners at the head of the betting and the stand-out candidates are led by ARIZONA BLAZE. The colt, trained in Ireland by Adrian Murray, has to carry a penalty for his victory in the G3 Marble Hill Stakes over 1,200m at the Curragh in May, but he should appreciate this easier task. His most recent runs have been third places in the G2 Norfolk Stakes over 1,000m at Royal Ascot and the G2 Railway Stakes over 1,200m at the Curragh, plus the G1 Phoenix Stakes over 1,200m, also at the Curragh, earlier this month.

AN OUTLAW'S GRACE represents trainer Richard Hannon, who has won this race five times in the last eight years, and Ryan Moore takes the ride. He has twice been beaten in G2 races since making a winning debut in a Salisbury over 1,200m maiden in June but was not disgraced in either contest. In the first, AN OUTLAW'S GRACE was not beaten far by useful opponents in the G2 Prix Robert Papin over 1,200m at Chantilly. He then ran much better than his finishing position of fifth to AOMORI CITY in the G2 HKJC World Pool Vintage Stakes over 1,400m suggests at Glorious Goodwood last month. The son of DANDY MAN found the last 200m a step too far there, fading after being in a challenging position.

Filly MAW LAM, a maiden winner at Thirsk over 1,000m on debut in May, has made life difficult for herself with a series of slow starts but she possesses plenty of ability as she showed when third to LEOVANNI in the G2 Queen Mary Stakes at Royal Ascot. She occupied the same position in a very close finish to a 1,000m Listed race at Deauville earlier this month.

MIDNIGHT CITY looks likely to step up on his promising debut when fifth in a maiden over 1,200m at Newmarket's July Course earlier this month. He has an eye-catching entry in a G1 race later this year.

TERRITORIAL KNIGHT has improved in each of his three starts. He goes well on fast ground and was an impressive winner of a Pontefract novice event over 1,200m last month.

SELECTIONS: 1. ARIZONA BLAZE, 4. AN OUTLAW'S GRACE, 20. MAW LAM, 13. MIDNIGHT CITY & 16. TERRITORIAL KNIGHT

2ND DOUBLE SELECTIONS (4 unit bets):

S2-2: Multiple – 1. ARIZONA BLAZE & 4. AN OUTLAW'S GRACE

Pace: FAST

Bit of a cavalry charge with this big field. Most of the pace is on the far side and AMERICAN STYLE looks likely to lead with ARIZONA BLAZE. GHOST RUN will probably take them along towards the stands. MAW LAM usually comes from the back and expect AN OUTLAW'S GRACE to be a late closer as well.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

ELNAJMM looks to be heading for better grades and he should take this 1,582m handicap on his way to Group contests. William Haggas' runner is unbeaten in two handicap starts this season. He easily won his first start of the season over 1,605m on Newcastle's polytrack. The way he followed up when overcoming traffic problems to land a competitive 1,600m Ascot contest underlined his potential.

NEW IMAGE missed the whole of last year, but he has been hugely consistent since joining Yorkshire trainer David O'Meara. In eight races, he's won four times and only been out of the first three on one occasion. He had no problem with the step up to 1,594m for the first time at Ascot. After travelling strongly, he had to wait for a gap in the straight, but when it appeared, he quickened up nicely to hit the front on the line. He's unexposed over this distance and looks sure to run his race.

Stablemate BLUE FOR YOU won this race two years ago. He wasn't helped by a high draw when down the field 12 months ago, but his overall record at York is good. In eight runs over this course and distance, he has won three times and been runner-up twice. The most recent of those victories came in July when he beat NORTHERN EXPRESS. The form of that race could not have worked out much better with the runner-up landing a hot Ascot handicap on his next start. These big-field handicaps suit him well.

HOLLOWAY BOY hasn't won since making a successful debut in the Listed Chesham Stakes over 1,400m at Royal Ascot two years ago but he has spent most of his career in Group races. He's rediscovered his form since dropping in grade to handicaps this season. After finishing fifth in the competitive Royal Hunt Cup over 1,600m at Royal Ascot, he chased home useful CICERO'S GIFT over 1,600m at Sandown. His third in Goodwood's Golden Mile over 1,600m was another solid effort and he should run another good race.

METAL MERCHANT was an excellent fourth behind NORTHERN EXPRESS in a hot Ascot handicap last month, especially as the slowly-run 1400m was too sharp for him. The return to 1,600m will suit Jack Channon's runner.

 Likely Positions After Settling

Pace: FAST

Huge field for the round course and not that far before the first turn so a number are going to be caught wide. JAMES MCHENRY has a good draw in 1 and led last time. He needs to make a good start. DEAR MY FRIEND and CRUYFF TURN are both drawn very wide, but will probably try to get away quickly and track across to the inner. ELNAJMM is also drawn wide, he is usually near the pace, but may have a few problems getting a good position though Tom Marquand is an excellent tactical jockey.

All good efforts this season including a defeat of 20 rivals in a 1600m Newbury handicap. He now sits on a career high handicap mark but is unlikely to be too far from the money.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Aidan O'Brien has won three of the last four runnings of the G1 Yorkshire Oaks over 2,381m.

CONTENT is his main representative here, arriving on the back of finishing second in the G1 Irish Oaks over 2,400m at the Curragh. Although she has failed to register a win in four starts in G1 company this season, that first run over 2,400m looked to bring out the best in her. She looked slightly unlucky not to win too, with Ryan Moore having to wait longer than he wanted before making his challenge and she stayed on powerfully in the final 100m to lose out by less than a length to YOU GOT TO ME. On only her second go at this trip, CONTENT may be up to turning that form around.

YOU GOT TO ME won the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial Stakes over 2,321m back in May before finishing fourth in both the G1 Oaks and G2 Ribblesdale Stakes. Her win in the Irish Oaks was her first in G1 company and signalled that she is still progressing. She was given an excellent ride by Hector Crouch to win at the Curragh, and she may need to better that performance to win this stronger contest.

John & Thady Gosden saddle two here, QUEEN OF THE PRIDE and EMILY UPJOHN. QUEEN OF THE PRIDE has managed two Group wins in succession in her past two starts, the first being the G3 Lester Piggott Fillies' Stakes over 2,359m at Haydock. More recently, she won the G2 Lancashire Oaks over 2,359m at the same track, where she breezed to victory by three lengths. This will be her debut in G1 company, but judging by the ease of her last win, she looks to be improving rapidly and is well worth her place at this level.

EMILY UPJOHN has been largely a disappointment this season but has shown flashes of form. She was way off the pace last time out in the G1 Nassau Stakes over 1,979m at Goodwood and never looked a real contender. However, before that she did finish a close second to BLUESTOCKING in the G1 Pretty Polly Stakes over 2,000m at the Curragh in June, beating CONTENT into third. That sort of form would make her interesting, but she has a bit to prove after such a poor effort last time out.

MISTRAL STAR finished third behind QUEEN OF THE PRIDE at Haydock over 2,400m in June and improved on that when winning impressively in Listed company at Newmarket's July Course over 2,400m last time. More will be needed now but she looks a place contender.

PORT FAIRY is probably going to try to dictate things here for the O'Brien team, CONTENT sitting off the pace. YOU GOT TO ME can be very keen and may pull herself into a prominent position. SEA THEME and QUEEN OF THE PRIDE will come from off the pace.

Best judged on an improved performance last time out with a comprehensive Listed victory over this trip at Newmarket. Her speed figures were impressive for that class of race and she well deserves this harder assignment.

On a roll since stepping up to this trip, winning a G3 and a G2 at Haydock. She recorded impressive times on each occasion — both on good ground - and this progressive filly looks a serious player here.

From a stable going well, as usual. A Listed winner over this course and distance on her only previous York run, and also a comfortable Listed winner at Clairefontaine last month. Interesting despite the rise in class.

Mixed fortunes on her last two starts, delivering a career best when going close to landing a G2 shock win at Royal Ascot but never travelling as well when down the field in a G1 at the Curragh last time. No trip worries.

Under a positive ride she proved just too strong for eleven rivals in a G2 over this trip at Royal Ascot, probably helped by the first-time visor. However she then proved very disappointing in a G1 at the Curragh. Looks vulnerable.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

William Haggas is looking for his fourth success in this 2,400m Listed race for fillies and mares, and he has another strong favourite here in the well-bred SEA JUST IN TIME. Unraced at two, SEA JUST IN TIME looked a potential star when breaking her maiden over 2,000m at Newmarket, and she got back on track at Kempton over 2,399m two weeks ago. However, it was a success which was more workmanlike than impressive, and she will need to step up again tackling this more proven opposition.

NAKHEEL is also relatively inexperienced, but she showed a good attitude when asked to dig deep to win her maiden at Ascot over 1,993m in May. She has since twice finished in the frame in Listed races, at Goodwood over 1,979m and Newmarket's July Course over 2,400m, and it was encouraging how each time she finished her race off strongly. The form of both those races has stood up well, particularly the one at Goodwood, where NAKHEEL was a length and a half third to subsequent Ribblesdale Stakes runner-up LAVA STREAM.

Only once in the last 10 years have the 4YO horses beaten the 3YOs in this race, but there are several 4YOs with solid claims, none more so than SCENIC who is a guaranteed stayer. SCENIC has been placed in two Listed races, defying huge odds at York over 2,100m last season, and most recently at Deauville over 3,000m in July she was only beaten a neck by GAYA SENORA, who was second in the G2 Prix Kergorlay next time.

Rae Guest is also hopeful that already being a five-time winner will be a big asset for DIVINA GRACE. She is another filly who relishes fast ground and stays well. She won three races in her second season, from 2,000m to 2,400m, and this year she has maintained the improvement. Having run well in the Listed races at Pontefract and Newmarket's July Course, DIVINA GRACE then landed a gamble at Newmarket's July Course over 2,400m.

Karl Burke stressed that KARMOLOGY would improve as she got older after she had won her first two races over 1,600m at Ripon and Newcastle last autumn. KARMOLOGY has justified that prediction this year, winning a handicap over this course over 2,051m and then surpassing that achievement when runner-up in a Listed race over 2,051m back here a fortnight later.

ESMERAY and DIVINA GRACE may take them along her, CLIMATE FRIENDLY who also likes to at the front possibly getting caught a little wide from a worse draw. SEA JUST IN TIME seems to be able to come from any position, she raced prominently last time at Kempton and provided they don't go too fast she may well adopt similar tactics.

Ran well without threatening to win in a Listed event two starts back. Then a very close third over 3000m at Deauville. Stamina looks her thing.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This 1,400m nursery handicap looks typically competitive, with most of these 2YOs stepping into handicap company for the first time and hoping to prove better than their initial ratings.

AGE OF GOLD was a comfortable winner on debut at Yarmouth over 1,203m. The Charlie Appleby-trained runner was then stepped up into the Listed Chesham Stakes over 1,400m at Royal Ascot where ran well below his best. He came under pressure early and faded. Much better was clearly expected, as he was sent off a strong second favourite in the betting. He's since been gelded and that may help him recover his form.

Trainer Andrew Balding has won two of the last four renewals of this race and he runs SPELL MASTER. He's been steadily progressive in three starts to date, beginning with a sixth on debut at Newbury over 1,200m before looking to enjoy the step up to 1,403m when second at Epsom next time out. Most recently he dead-heated at Goodwood over 1,400m, when looking like he would win more comfortably. York's flat track should suit him, and he looks set to go well.

ORIGINAL OUTLAW ran several good races in novice and maiden company, going close to getting off the mark in a 1,200m maiden at Kempton where he was just run down at the finish by a smart rival. It looked as though he would make amends on his handicap debut at Goodwood over 1,400m last time, as he kicked two lengths clear 200m from home but was caught on the line by a fast-finishing stablemate. If he's given a slightly more patient ride here, he should be involved in the finish.

ART MARKET already has two runs in handicaps to his name and both have resulted in wins. After three runs in maiden and novice company, he won on handicap debut at Ascot over 1,200m, staying on well to lead by a neck at the line. Stepped up to 1,403m last time out at Yarmouth, he again did his best work in the closing stages, finishing strongly to win by half-a-length. Due to the narrow margins of those victories, he hasn't gone up much in the handicap and should be competitive again with more to come over this trip.

QASEEM has also won a handicap already, when staying on to win in the final strides at Haydock over 1,200m earlier this month. Judging by that effort this new trip should suit him well.

 Likely Positions After Settling

Pace: FAST

There is a kink in the course early in this essentially straight race. HOT PROPERTY is drawn low and looks likely to grab the rail. MISS HATHAWAY and QASEEM could be nearby. Wider out SHAZANI could be up there but nearer the middle of the track. ART MARKET will probably work a passage through the field and AGE OF GOLD may come from a long way back.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

ARISAIG has held her form well all season and she looks well placed to secure a third victory of the year in this 3yo+ Fillies & Mares Handicap over 1,400m. The Charlie Johnston-trained 3YO gained reward for some commendable efforts when being delivered with a perfectly timed run under Jamie Spencer to land a 1,600m handicap at Goodwood last time out. Although only winning by a short distance last time out, the HARRY ANGEL filly was better value than her margin of victory suggests and the small rise in the ratings she received for that victory should not prevent further progression under Spencer dropped back in trip.

NINE TENTHS has not been sighted since finishing sixth in a 1,413m handicap at Newcastle back in March, but she looks capable of a bold bid at the head of the weights having previously run out the winner of the Listed Lady Wulfruna Stakes over 1,433m at Wolverhampton. While the daughter of KODIAC is yet to translate her smart all-weather form to the turf, her one victory achieved on grass in a 1,200m novice at Windsor was secured on quick ground, which she is likely to encounter here. Trainer William Haggas has three runners in the race, but interestingly stable jockey Tom Marquand has elected to partner NINE TENTHS which should give an indication of her chances.

RAKNAH drops back in grade having secured a front running success in the Listed Corrib Fillies' Stakes over 1,400m at Galway on her last start. It is notable that connections have opted to revert her back to handicap company instead of trying their hand at a higher level. Given her prominent style of racing, at a track which lends itself to those that run close to the pace, she could prove tough to pass out in front.

QUEEN OF MOUGINS is yet to add to her debut victory in a 1,200m novice at Newbury a year ago, however judging by her most recent effort she looks well worth a step up in trip. The Ralph Beckett-trained daughter of TEN SOVEREIGNS appeared to be in need of further when finishing third in a 1,200m handicap at Newmarket's July Course on her last start and the easy 1,400m here could be tailor made for her.

ELIM has run well this year without getting her head in front in three starts over 1,600m. Having travelled strongly in each of her races her stamina has given way on each occasion which suggests a fast run 1,400m will be much more to her liking.

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

York Racecourse

York is a left-handed track. Races over 1000m and 1200m are run on a straight course whilst races over 1400m start from a chute that joins the main straight in a dog leg shape. The same chute is used for races over 4400m. Races over 2800m and 3251m also start from a chute whilst all other starting points are on the round course. Barrier 1 is always drawn on the inside of the track.

York is a high-quality large course with sweeping turns and no undulations. Considered one of the fairest tracks in Great Britain, the straight is approximately 900m and although the layout of the course suits strong galloping types, horses who get to the front early in the straight often will not run down, especially on testing ground.

There are seven races for coverage on Yorkshire Oaks Day. The two races on the straight course are the 1200m G2 Lowther Stakes and 2yo Allowance. Over 1200m they tend to mostly come down the centre of the track, but will normally look to head to the grandstand rail when the ground is soft, thus high draws are favourable on rain affected ground in larger fields.

Five races on the round course will be covered on the raceday as well. The 1400m 2yo Handicap and 3yo+ Fillies & Mares Handicap, although the advantage looks minimal, horses from middle to high gates have a good record overall. For the 1575m 3yo+ Handicap and 2371m Listed Galtres Stakes, there is no draw bias, but keep in mind they do tend to head to the middle and sometimes the grandstand rail when they come into the straight, especially on rain affected ground.

The start of the feature race, G1 2371m Yorkshire Oaks, is on the far right hand side of the course and runners have a decent straight stretch before going around a slight bend then heading down the side straight and around the swooping turn into the lengthy home straight. Whilst barriers are of little importance, keep in mind they are likely to come down the middle or even head to the grandstand rail on straightening, especially on rain-affected ground. High quality fillies including ENABLE, LOVE and THE FUGUE (2013 Hong Kong Vase runner-up) have won the race. The Yorkshire Oaks is open to both fillies and mares, and 3yo fillies, who have a 9-pounds age allowance, have won eight of the last ten renewals.

Last year's Yorkshire Oaks was run on Good to firm ground with a field of ten runners going to post. On leaving the stalls SAVETHELASTDANCE, was sent to the front to take up the running, whilst POPTRONIC sat in second on the outside with NOVAKAI, WARM HEART & BLUESTOCKING tracking the pace, as several, including FREE WIND and SEA SILK ROAD, were held-up at the back. SAVETHELASTDANCE ensured the race was run at an even gallop, which meant there was very little change in the order of the contest. As they came into the straight all runners elected to stay on the inside, and the race started to develop. 600m from the finish SAVETHELASTDANCE was being pushed along but finding plenty for pressure as her stable mate, WARM HEART, loomed up seemingly with plenty to offer, whilst both FREE WIND and SEA SILK ROAD picked up strongly from the back, but both encountered traffic problems. WARM HEART grabbed SAVETHELASTDANCE 300m from the finish, but FREE WIND was now out and laid down the gauntlet to WARM HEART and the pair fought out a close finish over the concluding stages with WARM HEART prevailing by a lip to hold off the slightly unlucky FREE WIND with SAVETHELASTDANCE in third in a time that was 2.94 seconds faster than standard.

The weather forecast this year is suggesting clear sunny days in the lead-up and on race day, and if correct the going is likely to be Good with a strong possibility of Good to Firm going.

Fast improver Queen Of The Pride could be the answer to Thursday's Yorkshire Oaks puzzle

Wednesday, 21/8/2024

Queen Of The Pride could be the latest rising star to win the Yorkshire Oaks – for three-year-old and up fillies and mares – with its distinguished history tracing back to 1849.

The Group 1 over the 2371m of York's big galloping Knavesmire track is the highlight of day two (Thursday 22 August) of this spectacular August meeting. It has eight declared runners with Queen Of The Pride's trainer John Gosden (now in partnership with his son Thady) looking to win it for a fifth time.

Both Queen Of The Pride's parents were Group 1 winners and, considering the huge improvement she has made since stepping up to similar distances as this, it is surely just a matter of time before she also grabs that accolade. And very possibly on this first venture into the most elite company, especially considering the way she quickened past rivals to win last month's G2 Lancashire Oaks at Haydock.

If team Gosden don't win it with the Oisín Murphy-ridden four-year-old first-time York starter they could bag the winners' prize with the five-year-old mare Emily Upjohn, a racehorse with a very different profile.

Not only has she won her only start at York – the G3 Musidora Stakes back in 2022 - but she is dual Group 1 winner latterly with a thrilling last-to-first victory in Epsom's Coronation Cup in June 2023. However, in sharp contrast to upwardly mobile Queen Of The Pride, Emily Upjohn is struggling to re-discover her former splendour.

Thursday's rider Kieran Shoemark was blamed in some quarters for keeping her too far back over the shorter trip of this month's G1 Nassau Stakes at Goodwood but the Gosden's did not join in on that criticism accepting instead that the real Emily Upjohn just didn't turn up that day.

Neither Shoemark nor Murphy have won a Yorkshire Oaks but Murphy is clearly a huge fan of Queen Of The Pride and her Thursday chances. "She was slow to come to hand but the patience of the Gosdens' is really paying off now and York should be ideal." Thady Gosden added: "She is still learning but has done absolutely nothing wrong so far."

Serious rivals to this Newmarket-trained pair include You Got To Me (Hector Crouch) and Content (Ryan Moore), first and second in last month's G1 Irish Oaks over 2400m at the Curragh, with facts and figures suggesting that both fillies are now peaking. Moreover, their respective supporters will enjoy the statistic that three-year-olds have won the Yorkshire Oaks in eight of the last ten years; five of those handled by Content's trainer Aidan O'Brien.

A less obvious candidate perhaps, but an interesting one surely, is William Buick's mount Mistral Star. She is a former handicapper but the manner in which she accelerated past rivals in the Listed Aphrodite Fillies' Stakes over this trip and on fast ground at Newmarket last month strongly suggests that this improver deserves her place in this historic event.
