Overseas Expert Column by Brett Davis

I WISH I WIN needs no introduction and remains the equal highest rated Australian sprinter going around. Last year's runner up shall make his second attempt at victory in this now officially branded G1 event. We know there's the chance of him getting too far back, and in a race of this calibre every inch is crucial, but on most occasions there are zero opponents that can match his final turn of speed. He's primed and ready to win going in third up but must stay in contact early.

BELLA NIPOTINA has developed into Australia's equal top rated sprinter over the past 12 months with wins in the G1 Tatt's Tiara and G1 Doomben 10,000, where she defeated I WISH I WIN. Her two recent runs, following a ten-week spell, have topped her off ideally for this mouth-watering event and the draw allows her to remain away from the fence. She'll peel to the outside once they turn into the stretch and unleash her powerful turn of foot, and if there's any kinks in the armour of those ahead then she'll sail on by at the end.

STORM BOY draws nicely and shouldn't be too quickly overlooked from that gate. He must step well for sure, but there's a great opportunity to travel alongside GROWING EMPIRE and the pair should join I AM ME, and then likely cross. If the 3YOs, particularly under the weight for age scale, have their way for a furlong or two they'll definitely make hay while the sunshine's out in front. This guy's run over the testing 1,400m of the G1 Golden Rose was excellent in defeated and he couldn't be any fitter dropping back in trip.

GROWING EMPIRE has been touted as the next super star sprinter of the Australian turf and it's justified as an accurate quote. At his first attempt in G1 company he raced hard on speed and was thereafter vulnerable to a superior turn of foot. The winner, SOUTHPORT TYCOON is now a multiple G1 winner himself and renowned for his power and hard-core strength over further. It's without doubt his toughest and most challenging test but the wide draw should allow him to cross over in rhythm.

STEFI MAGNETICA shall find this race a fraction short but if they fully crank on the speed during the first half, she may drop on them with a big bang later stages. The 2024 G1 Stradbroke Handicap winner has made significant progress over the last six months and is difficult to fully assess in this cracking event. The one thing for sure is she was absolutely brilliant first up in the G2 Shorts over 1,100m, and if she backs that up she's a genuine contender.

Pace: GOOD

An interesting map for the Everest. I AM ME has the pace to use barrier one with the three-year-olds, STORM BOY, GROWING EMPIRE and TRAFFIC WARDEN snapping at her heels. JOLIESTAR can get the soft trailing run and she showed fresh that she has a dynamic turn of speed.
