Overseas Expert Column by Jon Lees

Hong Kong fans will be very familiar with two of the main protagonists in this 2,400m highlight. LUXEMBOURG went very close to dethroning Hong Kong champion ROMANTIC WARRIOR in the Hong Kong Cup last December when a short head separated the pair. The 5YO has won a top level race in every season he has raced, taking the G1 Coronation Cup over this trip at Epsom in May. In his two runs since he has been used as a pacesetter for last year's Breeders' Cup Turf winner AUGUSTE RODIN, at Ascot and Leopardstown, efforts which it would be unfair to judge him on. At Del Mar he is Aidan O'Brien's number one hope with Ryan Moore aboard and must not be underestimated.

Godolphin's REBEL'S ROMANCE won the Turf two years ago and is a multiple G1 winner on the international stage. He added Hong Kong to his itinerary when he captured the G1 Standard Chartered Champions & Chater Cup at Sha Tin in May this year. On his previous start he had beaten a strong field to land the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Meydan, in which SHAHRYAR was second and EMILY UPJOHN fifth. None of his six G1 wins have been achieved in Britain, a goal he fell short of achieving when third in the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Ascot, behind GOLIATH and subsequent Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner BLUESTOCKING, and at Del Mar he could be vulnerable to another European.

EMILY UPJOHN looked set to add to her laurels in 2024, yet she is winless from six races. Critics have pointed the finger at jockey Kieran Shoemark who has taken over since the departure of Frankie Dettori. However it has been an underwhelming year for many in the John and Thady Gosden stable. Closer examination of the mare's form shows it's not all bad. She finished behind BLUESTOCKING in her two best runs and in the G1 Prix Vermeille, in which she was third, the first two were first and second in the Arc. The return of Dettori, now resident in California, can only be a benefit.

Brian Meehan has won two editions of the Turf and his latest challenger JAYAREBE is not dissimilar in profile to RED ROCKS and DANGEROUS MIDGE. The 3YO has improved all year, winning a G3 at Royal Ascot, finishing second to Irish Champion Stakes winner ECONOMICS in a G2 before winning the Prix Dollar, in which subsequent British Champion Stakes winner ANMAAT was fifth. He has a live chance of making the first five.

A US runner has won just two of the last ten editions of the Turf and if a local horse is to win the race, FAR BRIDGE could be the best credentialled. He comes into the race with two recent G1 wins to his name. He beat two in-form Godolphin challengers in the G1 Sword Dancer Stakes at Saratoga then defeated WAR LIKE GODDESS, seventh and third in the last two editions of this race, in the G1 Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Stakes. Even after that he probably needs to pull out more to have a winning chance. A place in the top five would be more realistic.

Pace: GOOD

CABO SPIRIT has superior speed and should take the early lead. LUXEMBOURG and WINGSPAN also like to lead but should take a sit behind the leader. EMILY UPJOHN, JAYAREBE and REBEL'S ROMANCE will not be far away. SHAHRYAR will be along the rail in midfield.

Winner of a prestigious South American G1 over this trip at San Isidro last December but has made little impact since moving to the US. A very unlikely winner.

Briefly looked like landing a shock win in this (at Santa Anita) last year, finishing a good fourth. A narrow G2 winner here in August. Likely to be a few too strong here.

Second to Cabo Spirit in a Santa Anita G2 last time but well beaten in various starts at Del Mar, over shorter trips and in lesser company that this. A most unlikely winner.

Overseas Expert Column by Jon Lees

A race champion trainer Aidan O'Brien and his Coolmore backers crave more than any other. There have been near-misses with GIANT'S CAUSEWAY, beaten a neck in 2000, and DECLARATION OF WAR, third beaten three quarters of a length in 2013. And there have been many flops, many of them some of the trainer's most famous horses such as GALILEO, HAWK WING, GEORGE WASHINGTON, SO YOU THINK and RIP VAN WINKLE. But O'Brien has stopped running horses ill-equipped for US dirt, and now believes he has found the ideal candidate in CITY OF TROY. He has reigned supreme in Europe since he won the Derby and his trainer has championed him as the best horse he has ever trained. Nevertheless until he exits the starting gate there will continue to be doubts about his Classic credentials, which remained even after he completed a Breeders' Cup-style workout at Southwell racecourse in September. The track's Tapeta surface is not dirt and his galloping companions were vastly inferior. CITY OF TROY is an undoubted talent but how will he respond to facing the US kickback? We have to wait and see.

The US three-year-olds seem to be a better crop than last year's group and although Kentucky Derby winner MYSTIK DAN is absent, the other two horses who fought out the photo-finish at Churchill Downs in May, plus the beaten favourite, take part in the Classic.

SIERRA LEONE lost out by a nose with Japan's FOREVER YOUNG another nose behind in third, and an arguably unlucky one too, having fly-jumped the start and then got into a bumping match with the second. SIERRA LEONE has not added to his score, finishing third in the Belmont and Travers Stakes, whereas FOREVER YOUNG was given few months off and made short work of winning the Japan Dirt Classic in his warm-up for another trip overseas. His trainer Yoshito Yahagi did not like his draw, in gate one, but the colt has overcome worse.

In the meantime, FIERCENESS, beaten more than 24 lengths as favourite at Churchill Downs, has bounced back to defeat SIERRA LEONE in the G2 Jim Dandy Stakes and then the US's top three-year-old filly THORPEDO ANNA in the Travers Stakes. Last year's Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner will vie with CITY OF TROY for favouritism.

Although Saudi Cup winner SENOR BUSCADOR and USHBA TESORO, the Dubai World Cup winner in 2023, tackle the race in which they finished seventh and fifth last year, the best older horse challenger could be DERMA SOTOGAKE. The Japanese colt stayed on strongly to finish a length second last year at Santa Anita and since disappointing in both Saudi Arabia and Dubai, has had just one goal - the Classic.

HIGHLAND FALLS could be the dark horse in the field. The Godolphin colt didn't make his debut until August last year but has kicked on in 2024 to win three times, most eye-catchingly when taking the G1 Jockey Club Gold Cup by four lengths, with TAPIT TRICE and ARTHUR'S RIDE down the field.

ARTHUR'S RIDE has speed and should lead this field in the early stages. HIGHLAND FALLS, MIXTO, FIERCENESS and NEWGATE should sit behind the leader. FOREVER YOUNG and CITY OF TROY should have a good run on the rail.

Likely favourite despite having first start on dirt, though his early speed should help with that. The star of the European Classic generation, winning the Derby at Epsom with two more terrific G1 victories following.

His upfront running style should be nicely suited to Del Mar's 2000m. Capable of mixing it at this level, convincingly winning a G1 at Saratoga in August.

Track Analysis by Jon Lees

Del Mar Racecourse

Del Mar Racecourse, located on the west coast of Southern California, is about 32km north of San Diego and 160km south of Los Angeles. It was established by a group of Hollywood stars led by Bing Crosby in 1937. In 1978, the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club was formed by a group of owners who set out to conduct the annual mid-summer meet from July through to September. In 2017 the track hosted the Breeders' Cup for the first time in its history and again in 2022. The event returns to Del Mar this year in November and has also been chosen as the host venue in 2025.

G1 Breeders' Cup Turf (2400m)

Del Mar Racecourse is a typical left-handed 1400m oval on turf, starting from the third turn, it features a diagonal infield chute that re-joins the course proper by midway through the homestretch, and caters for races over 1700m and 1800m, with the homestretch itself measuring 249m.

G1 Breeders' Cup Classic (2000m)

Del Mar Racecourse, features a left-handed, 1600m oval on dirt, with chutes for races over around 1400m and 2000m on the upper ends of both straights, and a 280m run from the last turn to the winning post.

The impact of the draw on a Breeders' Cup meeting is difficult to analyse as few races at the track during other times of the year draw maximum fields. Nevertheless, jockeys and trainers will always prefer to avoid an outside draw. Based on the evidence of two runnings of the Classic and Turf at Del Mar, horses can be competitive from any post position but over such a tight turf course there are bound to be hard luck stories.

In the 2017 Turf, the winner started from stall one, beating a horse drawn eleven, followed by horses which broke from three, twelve, and eight. In the 2021 race, the winner came from eight, followed by six, ten, twelve and fourteen.

In 2017 the winner of the Classic came from stall 5, followed by horses drawn eleven, eight, four and one. In 2021, the winner broke from four, and beat horses drawn seven, three, two and six.

The weather forecast for Del Mar during the week predicts a mix of dry and cloudy conditions. As a result, the going on the main track is expected to be fast and turf course firm.

City Of Troy and Rebel's Romance aiming for Breeders' Cup glory

Friday, 1/11/2024

Ryan Moore will surely be scheming a rocket start for European star City Of Troy in Sunday's (3 November) G1 Breeders' Cup Classic (2000m) on the speed-friendly dirt track at Del Mar.

The son of Justify will break from gate three as this European turf star moves into the uncharted waters of American dirt racing. An alert start will help avoid kickback as well allowing him to show the relentless pace when in full stride that has characterised his six turf victories.

Not only will City Of Troy meet stars of the American dirt scene in one of the United States of America's richest races at one of the world's grandest meetings but will also encounter three highly accomplished Japanese contenders.

City Of Troy's trainer Aidan O'Brien's worldwide achievements – including 18 Breeders' Cup winners – are well documented but victory has eluded him in the Breeders' Cup Classic despite 17 previous contenders. This modest statistic has clearly made no impact on the long-plan to direct City Of Troy towards this major American target.

“Being by Justify there was always a good chance he would perform on dirt and we have always dreamed that he could be very competitive in the Breeders' Cup Classic. He has a brave heart, a high cruising speed and is tactically very quick,” O'Brien said.

Justify became the 13th winner of America's Triple Crown in 2018 before being sent to stud.

Like City Of Troy, Japan's Forever Young is a three-year-old who has won six of his seven starts. Now he has a chance of avenging his only defeat when a close third – despite a disastrous trip – in his bid to become the first Japanese-trained winner of the G1 Kentucky Derby (2000m, dirt) at Churchill Downs in May.

Now on a second big-race venture to America, his trainer Yoshito Yahagi observed trackside at Del Mar on Wednesday (30 October): “Forever Young has a difficult draw in stall one but he is in much better form to how he was in May. He is a different horse, I would say.”

Fierceness is not as physically imposing as some of his rivals and has mixed some dazzling efforts with some head scratching ones. But the Todd Pletcher-trained, John Velazquez-ridden colt has now put two excellent consecutive performances together – latterly winning Saratoga's G1 Travers Stakes (2000m, dirt). This suggests that this shipper from the East to West Coast could be a leading American Classic contender.

Back in May, Rebel's Romance had landed the 13th win of his illustrious career with a strong victory in Sha Tin's G1 Standard Chartered Champions & Chater Cup (2400m).

He now goes for a repeat G1 Breeders' Cup Turf (2400m) victory following on from his 2022 triumph. That was at Keeneland – and jockey William Buick will be aware that the Charlie Appleby-trained gelding now confronts Del Mar, probably the tightest turf track in the USA. But the prolific-winning six-year-old comes here fresh off yet another victory – Koln's G1 Preis Von Europa (2400m) in September.

Rivals include tough mare Emily Upjohn who resumes her partnership with the now USA-based superstar Frankie Dettori. Emily Upjohn and Dettori won Group 1 races together over this weekend's distance in 2022 and 2023.

Pari-Mutuel Pools — Betting Guide

Dividend will be shared by the number of winning combinations of a particular pool. Winners will share the percentage of pool payout in proportion to their winning stakes.

Single-race pools are the simple and straight-forward betting pools for beginners to enjoy betting entertainment.

Single-race Pools	Dividend Qualification
WIN	1st in a race
PLACE	1st, 2nd or 3rd in a race, or 1st or 2nd in a race of 4 to 6 declared starters, or first four places in an overseas race of 21 or more declared starters
QUINELLA	1st and 2nd in any order in a race
QUINELLA PLACE	Any two of the first three placed horses in any order in a race
FORECAST	1st and 2nd in correct order in a race
TRIO	1st, 2nd and 3rd in any order in a race
TIERCE	1st, 2nd and 3rd in correct order in a race
FIRST 4	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in any order in a race
QUARTET	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in correct order in a race

All Up or Cross Pool All Up Betting

You can enjoy greater flexibility by choosing All Up or Cross Pool All Up bet. Simply by placing bets in the same or different betting pools for 2 races to a maximum of 6 races. Any dividend entitlement from a winning Leg will be automatically carried forward and reinvested in the subsequent Leg specified in your bet selection.
