Overseas Expert Column by Brett Davis

BUCKAROO is in career best form and another fantastic opportunity arises for former Hong Kong Champion jockey Joao Moreira to win the G1 Melbourne Cup. The former French galloper picked up his first Australian G1 win in the Underwood Stakes over 1,800m, and he achieved it with a powerful turn of foot. With Joao Moreira again behind the wheel in the G1 Caulfield Cup he charged home from out of the pack, but narrowly went down to DUKE DE SESSA on a genuine leaders bias track. Running out a strong 3,200m is a challenge for many, and he's certainly part of that discussion, but all other factors point towards a victory in the great race.

VAUBAN arrived in Australia last year with a strong wrap from Europe but didn't fire after starting favourite and covering ground in Australia's great race. This time around, the 7YO arrives with a more seasoned record on the flat following a G2 win at York, and a gallant second in the recent G1 Irish St Ledger at the Curragh. We all know the northern hemisphere stayers are superior to those bred in Australia, so he's very deserving of his opportunity to atone. He's settled in well and there's no reason to suspect he won't run a better race.

ONESMOOTHOPERATOR really had the Australian media and punters talking following his awesome destruction of the field in the G3 Geelong Cup over 2,400m. The Brian Ellison trained 7YO also ran in the Ebor Handicap at York where he fished seventh, right alongside SEA KING who finished sixth. This fellow is proven over the 3,200m with a win and multiple placings, primarily on synthetic tracks, completed in the past. He's well-seasoned and trained on exceptionally well under the rays of the bright Australian spring sun.

ZARDOZI was involved in a fascinating battle against LAND LEGEND in the G1 Metropolitan a month ago but ultimately came off second best. The margin at the end was only slender and importantly last year's G1 Victorian Oaks winner is now peaking for this coveted blue ribbon event. She's one of only a half dozen winning chances in this year's addition of the G1 Melbourne Cup, and superbly weighted as a previous G1 winner at the track.

SEA KING was extremely impressive at his first Australian performance where he effortlessly blitzed a solid field in the Bendigo Cup over 2,400m. The 6YO son by SEA THE STARS ran a solid and competitive race in the Ebor Handicap at York, prior to heading down under, which is a renowned form reference for any future staying race. A change of scenery, race track and far more superior opposition are now on the table to overcome, but it's sounding like there's ample confidence around.

Horse No.4
 Japanese visitor who failed to fire in the Caulfield Cup (2400m) in his Australian debut but was slow to begin and crowded after the start to finish 16.25L 13th. Has good form at 3000m and beyond and will appreciate a firmer track.

Horse No. 2

Got a golden ticket into the Cup by winning the Bart Cummings (2520m) at Flemington but then finished last in Moonee Valley Cup (2500m). Will be big odds but track suits.
