Welcome Message

6 September 2015

On behalf of the Hong Kong Jockey Club (HKJC), and specifically the Public Affairs Department, welcome to the 2015/2016 HKJC Media Guide, a selection of the key facts and historical figures for racing in this brilliant locale.

The history of racing in Hong Kong is a storied one. While the sport can trace its local lineage to annual meetings held at Happy Valley in 1846, the HKJC transitioned from an amateur to a professional racing organisation in 1971. The best and brightest in the sport have passed through our two racecourses, and the collection in this publication is designed to give you a sense of the development over just the last 30 seasons.

Recorded and updated going forward, this guide will offer a rolling ledger of the many names and faces familiar to present-day Hong Kong racing and engrain a memory of some of those from the past. Enclosed, you will find our updated Board of Stewards and Board of Management, a review of our fixtures and pattern races for the coming season, jockey and trainer profiles, along with the final tables from a record-setting 2014-2015 campaign.

Last season saw a 12-year high in our on-course attendance and another year of record turnover, just shy of HK$108 billion from our 83 race meetings, a sum that equates to almost US$14 billion. We provide a glimpse into the most recent past with turnover and attendance figures, the record dividends recorded in the professional history of the Club, the class and course records as of the end of last season, and histories for our ever-more-esteemed pattern races.

The quality of horses in Hong Kong continues to grow. Hong Kong's horse population represented just 0.7% of the total pool of horses from the 19 countries that had a race rated last year by a global panel of handicappers for the International Federation of Horseracing Authorities. Still, Hong Kong trainees accounted for more than 11% of the world's horses rated 120 and higher, and enjoyed a period in early 2015 when Able Friend was co-rated as the world's best. With such a high calibre of equine athletes, Hong Kong horses have excelled in overseas races to a level never previously imagined, winning four international races in three countries last year. This guide provides a complete history of Hong Kong's overseas race performances, a list that will surely continue to grow.

And where would we be without our champions? With our media partners from the Association of Hong Kong Racing Journalists, we proudly celebrate the season's best at the Champion Awards each July. The history of the Champion Awards is provided to complete this comprehensive, though still developing guide.

We hope you enjoy the details presented here and engage in our tremendously exciting racing experience.

Board of Stewards

The Board of Stewards is elected from among the Club's Voting Members, normally for terms of three years. The Stewards usually have strong corporate and professional backgrounds in Hong Kong and are themselves aficionados of racing. Working on a strictly voluntary basis for the Club, the Board, through its active participation in dedicated sub-committees, develops and oversees the future strategy and direction of the Club both as a business and as a charitable support organisation.

Background

Benno Yung started out at the Hong Kong Jockey Club as an apprentice jockey in 1978 and rode professionally in Hong Kong until 1986, the final four years as a senior jockey. He was first appointed assistant trainer in 1991, working under Christopher Cheung. He then spent two seasons in the same role for Tony Millard until moving to the John Size stable when the Australian first arrived in 2001. Yung remained in that role until receiving a licence to train ahead of the 2013/14 season. His first season yielded 37 winners at a strike rate of 11%
