

Declaration of Runners

- (2) All declarations shall state the name of the race, the name of the horse and of the jockey and shall be submitted by the owner or his Authorised Agent. Provided that if a trainer has an entry(s) declared to start in a race in addition to an entry(s) drawn on the reserve list and also declared to start, such trainer shall be permitted to declare an alternative jockey for the first-mentioned entry(s) and may omit the name of the jockey in a declaration to start in respect of any entry(s) placed on the reserve list. Also provided that a trainer who has an entry(s) on the reserve list declared to start which gains inclusion in the list of starters may claim the services of the stable's officially registered retained jockey. Declared jockeys affected by any such claim under such circumstances may be altered. A trainer exercising one or the other of the above rights must within 30 minutes after the time appointed for declaration of runners make his final declaration(s) of jockey(s).
- (3) If a jockey intends to carry overweight the amount thereof must be declared at the time of declaration. The responsibility for such declaration rests with both the trainer and the jockey. - (4) Any person responsible for making declarations may be penalised for errors contained in the declarations.
- (5) Notwithstanding that a horse which was ineligible to run or was prohibited from running in a race has in fact run in such race, or has been permitted to run in such race, and irrespective of whether or not the horse has won or has been placed in such race or any stake has been paid or awarded, neither the Stewards nor any other Official involved shall thereby incur or be under any liability of any kind whatsoever to any person.
- (6) It shall not be necessary to declare or exhibit fractions of less than one pound.

- (7) Without in any way detracting from the provisions of these Rules, no person shall without a proper or acceptable reason withdraw, induce or encourage the withdrawal of, or be induced to withdraw any horse from any race after entry closing time.
